

GLENDALE ELEMENTARY SCHOOL Title I, Part A Parental Involvement Plan

I, Adam Faust, do hereby certify that all facts, figures, and representations made in this application are true, correct, and consistent with the statement of assurances for these waivers. Furthermore, all applicable statutes, regulations, and procedures; administrative and programmatic requirements; and procedures for fiscal control and maintenance of records will be implemented to ensure proper accountability for the expenditure of funds on this project. All records necessary to substantiate these requirements will be available for review by appropriate state and federal staff. I further certify that all expenditures will be obligated on or after the effective date and prior to the termination date of the project. Disbursements will be reported only as appropriate to this project, and will not be used for matching funds on this or any special project, where prohibited.

Assurances

- The school will be governed by the statutory definition of parental involvement, and will carry out programs, activities, and procedures in accordance with the definition outlined in Section 9101(32), ESEA;
- Involve the parents of children served in Title I, Part A in decisions about how Title I, Part A funds reserved for parental involvement are spent [Section 1118(b)(1) and (c)(3)];
- Jointly develop/revise with parents the school parental involvement policy and distribute it to parents of participating children and make available the parental involvement plan to the local community [Section 1118 (b)(1)];
- Involve parents, in an organized, ongoing, and timely way, in the planning, review, and improvement of programs under this part, including the planning, review, and improvement of the school parental involvement policy and the joint development of the school wide program plan under section 1114(b)(2) [Section 1118(c)(3)];
- Use the findings of the parental involvement policy review to design strategies for more effective parental involvement, and to revise, if necessary, the school's parental involvement policy [Section 1118(a)(E)];
- If the plan for Title I, Part A, developed under Section 1112, is not satisfactory to the parents of participating children, the school will submit parent comments with the plan when the school submits the plan to the local educational agency [Section 1118(b)(4)];
- Provide to each parent an individual student report about the performance of their child on the state assessment in at least mathematics, language arts, and reading [Section 1111(h)(6)(B)(i)];
- Provide each parent timely notice when their child has been assigned or has been taught for four (4) or more consecutive weeks by a teacher who is not highly qualified within the meaning of the term in 34 CFR Section 200.56 [Section 1111(h)(6)(B)(ii)]; and
- Provide each parent timely notice information regarding their right to request information on the professional qualifications of the student's classroom teachers and paraprofessionals [Section (h)(6)(A)].

Mission Statement

Parental Involvement Mission Statement (Optional)

Response: Glendale Elementary

Mission Statement: We will be responsible, do our best, and always remember to help the rest.

Vision Statement: We will establish a learning partnership of home, school, and community to ensure personal and academic excellence.

Involvement of Parents

Describe how the school will involve parents in an organized, ongoing, and timely manner, in the planning, review, and improvement of Title I programs including involvement in the decisions regarding how funds for parental involvement will be used [Sections 1118(c)(3), 1114(b)(2), and 1118(a)(2)(B)].

Response:

Glendale Elementary will involve parents in an organized, on-going, and timely manner, in the planning, review, and improvement of Title I programs including involvement in the decisions regarding how funds for parental involvement will be used through:

- * Title I Annual Meetings
- * SAC Team
- * School survey
- * PTA/PTO meetings
- * Grade Level Parent Information Nights
- * School Website and Online Calendar
- * Use of school marquee

Glendale Elementary as a school wide Title I program receives ongoing support and technical assistance (beginning in August) designed to assist them in the development of effective parent involvement activities. Regular technical assistance meetings are provided to the principal and leadership team to review student achievement data and to assist school-based staff develop and implementation of all components of the required plans. These include but are not limited to: State and regional parent involvement forums/conferences/TA meetings.

Coordination and technical assistance is provided via a variety of ways including on-site training, phone calls, e-mails, site visits, and staff development for staff.

Title I Program staff provide training and present parent involvement information at faculty meetings upon request.

The district Title I Office provides technical assistance and support to Glendale regarding the development of their school-level PIP. The district Title I coordinator, project specialist, Title I resource teacher and parent involvement specialist meet with the Title I leadership team to review the PIP to ensure that all requirements of Section 1118 [34 CFR 200.30(e)] are met. A Title I district staff participates at Glendale SAC committee meetings and facilitates the presentation of the PIP to the SAC members. The SAC meetings occur on a regular basis throughout the school year.

Title I staff review the agendas of school-level parent involvement meetings and activities to assist schools in ensuring that the activities are effective and designed to promote student achievement. Bilingual Title I staff facilitate parent involvement trainings and meetings to ensure that parents whose heritage language is not English, may participate fully in meaningful opportunities to become more involved in the education of their child.

Specific actions the LEA will take to provide coordination, technical assistance, and other support to assist Glendale as a Title I, Part A school in planning and implementing effective parental involvement activities to improve student academic achievement and school performance is detailed below:

Technical assistance meetings are provided at Glendale throughout the school year for all Title I Administration and School Leadership Teams (SLT) to support schools in their review of current FCAT/Florida Standards Assessment data and the development, implementation, and review of their Title I Parent Involvement Plan and SIP.

The LEA provides technical assistance and collaboration with school leadership team representatives (via meetings, e-mails, and phone calls) to ensure NCLB parent involvement requirements for district and schools are met for the School Improvement Plan, Parent Involvement Plan, and School Parent Compacts.

The District Title I Team, in consultation and coordination with the school based leadership teams and the Professional Development Department, recommend district training and professional development for principals and associated staff on interpretation and implementation of current legislation. Additionally, the Title I team provide opportunities for guest speakers and family involvement presentations upon request.

District staff provides the "School-Family Partnership" training for school staff members to enhance their abilities to engage families in the education of their child.

Glendale's Title I Parent Involvement Plan ensures that activities provide meaningful opportunities for parents to gain the needed skills and/or knowledge to become more involved in their child's education.

The District Title I staff regularly participate in regional East Coast Technical Assistance Center (ECTAC) family involvement team meetings and through this process is kept abreast of the most current research based findings and programs for family involvement. The leadership meetings serve as the main forum for sharing and disseminating ECTAC and FLDOE information; however, the District Title I staff share information through informal means as well and are available (to schools) for consultation and assistance as requested.

Parents, parent involvement school representatives and principals, teachers are invited to attend Regional, District, and State sponsored training sessions, workshops, and conferences designed to support parent involvement and strengthen student academic achievement.

Title I Program staff share information through informal means as well and are available to the school for consultation and assistance as requested.

The LEA and school site funds opportunities for guest speakers to provide parent involvement workshops and trainings and to purchase researched based books and materials on parent Involvement for Title I Schools to support parent assistance with the curriculum (ie. math manipulatives, books and bi-lingual materials).

The school must submit to the Title I office each semester a Parent Involvement Activity Plan/Calendar. The Parent Involvement Plan serves as a school/parent activities tracking form. Additionally, the LEA requires sample copies of flyers, agendas, and sign-in sheets for all parent involvement activities (e.g., Open House, FCAT Nights, Book Fairs, Literacy, Math and STEM Nights).

The Title I leadership team solicits recommendations, ideas and suggestions on parent involvement activities from parents and school staff throughout the school year.

The LEA and school site funds opportunities for guest speakers to provide parent involvement workshops and trainings and to purchase researched based books and materials on parent Involvement for Title I Schools to support parent assistance with the curriculum (i.e. math manipulatives and books)

The District Title I staff provides technical assistance in the effective use of the Parent Resource Room at Glendale.

The Title I School Social Worker provides facilitates the access of community resources needed to support the engagement of families. With collaboration from a variety of local agencies services include but are not limited to providing and assisting with counseling, crisis intervention, uniforms, clothing, housing assistance, shelter, and transportation.

The Title I School Social Worker facilitates access to community resources for parents as needed.

The SDIRC Superintendent's Coffee Series provides parents an opportunity to speak with the Superintendent in a relaxed setting. This provides an opportunity for parents and the community to share input on school improvement, required plans and methods that will engage families and the community to improve academic achievement and overall school/district performance.

Coordination and Integration

Describe how the school will coordinate and integrate parental involvement programs and activities that teach parents how to help their children at home, to the extent feasible and appropriate, including but not limited to, other federal programs such as: Head Start, Early Reading First, Even Start, Home Instruction Programs for Preschool Youngsters, the Parents as Teachers Program, public preschool, Title I, Part C, Title II, Title III, Title IV, and Title VI [Section 1118(e)(4)].

count	Program	Coordination
1	Title II	Title II schools with supplemental funding to support the professional development needs of staff related to parent involvement through the School - Family Partnership PowerPoint. Funds are used to support attendance at state and regional conferences and pay for consultants related to parental involvement.
2	Title III	Title III funds are used to support parent involvement activities for parents of English language learners. Title staff work closely with Title III staff to collaborate activities whenever possible.
3	Title I part C	Migrant staff will conduct home visits. Migrant staff also assist and facilitate parent involvement meetings since many of the migrant students attend Title I schools.
4	Title X	Homeless program staff work closely with the Title I Office to coordinate services for homeless students. Activities may include: coordinated meetings with parents, meetings with Title and Homeless Education Program staff to discuss the barriers to success of homeless students.
5	VPK	Title I Part A supplements the funding of the district's VPK program at the highest ranked poverty school in the district. The Title I and VPK office work together to coordinate appropriate early childhood programs and transition programs for pre-K students who will enter kindergarten. Activities include Kindergarten roundup meetings, parent meetings, and literacy nights. Title I teachers coordinate with VPK teachers to discuss specific learning needs and referrals. In addition, the Title I Program supports a summer learning opportunity for students who completed VPK and will enter Kindergarten at a Title I school in the Fall. This summer program helps to reduce the potential of "summer slide" for the VPK completers.
6	Title I Adult Education	Adults and school age children attend evening sessions receiving Rosetta Stone and homework assistance
7	The Learning Alliance	The Learning Alliance (TLA) support the District's Moonshot Moment goal to have 90% of all children reading on grade level by the end of third grade in 2018! The Learning Alliance initiated a "Moonshot Moment Book Drop Off" Program to supply students who attend a Title I school appropriate books to support parents and students at home. In addition, the Learning Alliance provided funding for vision screening and eyeglasses, if needed, to students during the Title I Summer Program. This ensured students needing eyeglasses were prepared for the start of the new school year. The Learning Alliance also hosted a Moonshot Milestone Mission Kickoff where parents and grandparents were encouraged to visit the Vero Beach Museum of Art on September 27th to see the Walter Wick exhibit and to get a first-hand demonstration on how to use ART to develop a child's reading milestones. The Learning Alliance assists parents in preparing their children to be "Ready for Kindergarten".
8	Education Foundation	The Education Foundation of Indian River County's mission is to enrich and enhance educational opportunities. Through the generosity of community partners such as Impact 100, Bank of America, The Community Foundation, The John's Community Service League, The John's Island Foundation, Motorola, AT&T, Toyota of Vero Beach, School District Education Foundation Matching Grant Program (from the Florida Legislature), Indian River Lawyers Auxiliary and a Business Partnership with Piper Aircraft, they have been able to help the Indian River School District achieve BIG Dreams. Some projects include: "Achieving Our Green Dreams - Planting the Seeds for the Future" Working with Vero Beach Elementary School to provide self-sustaining education for their students with a Nutrition Kitchen and Community Garden and a "Model Classroom at Dodgertown Elementary School" Creating the first model 4 year old pre-kindergarten classroom (VPK) for the school district; Sneaker Exchange; School Supplies.

Annual Parent Meeting

Describe the specific steps the school will take to conduct an annual meeting designed to inform parents of participating children about the school's Title I program, the nature of the Title I program (school wide or targeted assistance), Adequately Yearly Progress, school choice, supplemental educational services, and the rights of parents. Include timeline, persons responsible, and evidence the school will use to demonstrate the effectiveness of the activity [Section 1118(c)(1)].

5	Enlist parents for Parent Involvement at Orientation and throughout the year	Adam Faust, Andrea Williams, Teachers	August 2014	list of parent names

Flexible Parent Meetings

Describe how the school will offer a flexible number of meetings, such as meetings in the morning or evening, and may provide with Title I funds, transportation, child care, or home visits, as such services related to parental involvement [Section 1118(c)(2)].

Response: Response:

Glendale Elementary will offer parent meetings at different times during the day and evening. Our goal is to host a number of meetings at different times in order to meet the needs of our families.

SAC meetings are in the afternoon. PTA meetings are in the afternoon and evening. Parent training and information meetings are at 6:00. Parent conference meetings are offered anytime between 7:30 a.m. and 8:00 p.m. during conference week. Teachers are also available before and after school for conferences as needed throughout the school year.

At each Parent Evening, a translator will be available.

Food and child care may be offered for Parent Evenings and Parent Trainings.

Parents are invited to come for special activities during the school day.

During the school year, there are Parent Involvement Activities on weekends.

Title I program staff work with parents and teachers to coordinate and provide flexibility in the scheduling of conferences (i.e. child care, home visits, etc)

Accessibility

Describe how the school will provide full opportunities for participation in parental involvement activities for all parents (including parents with limited English proficiency, disabilities, and migratory children). Include how the school plans to share information related to school and parent programs, meetings, school reports, and other activities in an understandable and uniform format and to the extent practical, in a language parents can understand [Section 1118(e)(5) and 1118(f)].

Response: Response: The PI Plan is discussed and distributed during SAC meetings to all parents of Glendale students. Parents of students who were unable to participate in the SAC meeting receive a PI Plan via backpack upon request. Parents requesting the Plan in Spanish will receive that support. The Parent Involvement Plans are distributed and made available via hard copy and on the district and school's website.

All pertinent written communication is provided for parents in English and Spanish and in other languages, when feasible. English and Spanish are the primary languages spoken in the homes of SDIRC students. Whenever feasible, the district will provide translations in other languages either by volunteers, district employees, or outside companies. All Title I schools have bilingual staff who serve as interpreters to ensure that all parents are fully able to participate in parent meetings and activities. The district's Title I Parent Specialist, Title I Social Workers, and Project Specialist are also bilingual and facilitate communication between the home and the school.

The Title I Office works closely with the district's ESOL program and the Migrant Education Program to ensure that specific language barriers are addressed. They also collaborate in the implementation of parent involvement activities and meetings for both the ESOL and Migrant Programs. Both the Title I Coordinator and the District Project Specialist also support the Migrant (MEP), ESOL, and Homeless programs.

All Title I schools have bilingual staff who serve as interpreters to ensure that all parents are fully able to participate in parent meetings and activities.

The district also works collaboratively with the Exceptional Student

Education department to ensure that parents may fully benefit from the parent involvement activities.
