Title I Parent and Family Engagement Plan

Mission Statement - Parent and family engagement Mission Statement (Optional)

Response:

Umatilla Elementary School, along with families and the community, will strive to help each student achieve educational accomplishments through motivating instruction, successful learning experiences, and a safe and orderly environment. By providing high expectations and opportunities for success, students will be able to reach their academic goals. We understand that active participation by parents and families will help students in their academic achievement.

Involvement of Parents and Families

Describe how the school will involve parents and families in an organized, ongoing, and timely manner, in the planning, review, and improvement of Title I programs including involvement in the decisions regarding how funds for parent and family engagement will be used.

Response:

Umatilla Elementary School believes in involving parents in our Title I programs. The SAC has the responsibility of developing, implementing, and evaluating school level plans, including the SIP and PFEP, Title I Plan/Budget, Parental Involvement Plan/Budget, and the School Compact. Parents represent at least 50% of SAC membership. The members of the SAC are elected upon by peers (faculty, staff, and parents). Parents are given the opportunity to review the plan and offer their input prior to approval. For the PFEP, all parents are given the opportunity to complete surveys at the end of the school year that will give their input in activities, trainings, and materials that are needed to help children. Minutes, agendas, sign in sheets, advertisements are used as documentation of parent input. Parents will be notified of SAC meetings through the school newsletter, website, marquee, weekly call-outs, and Facebook.

Coordination and Integration -Describe how the school will coordinate and integrate parent and family engagement programs and activities that teach parents how to help their children at home, to the extent feasible and appropriate, including but not limited to, other federal programs such as: Head Start, Early Reading First, Even Start, Home Instruction Programs for Preschool Youngsters, the Parents as Teachers Program, public preschool, Title I, Part C, Title II, Title III, Title IV, and Title VI.

count	Program	Coordination
1	IX, Homeless	Umatilla Elementary School works with the Homeless Liaison as well as the student services department to see that parents of homeless students have opportunities to participate in family engagement programs and activities.
2	Head Start	Towards the end of the school year, a Kindergarten Round Up is held to provide information, early registration and screenings to incoming kindergarten students.
3	Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA)	To discuss support that could be provided by Title I during the development of a student's IEP.
4	Title III	The ELL teacher assistant works with ELL students and also serves as a liaison between school and home and often serves as a translator. Teachers at Umatilla Elementary School are also ESOL certified. Rosetta Stone is also used for qualifying ELL students.
5	Title I C, Migrant	The program promotes the coordination of educational and support services including the timely transfer of academic records. This program helps to ensure migrant students do not face additional educational challenges due to the differences in academic standards throughout the country.

Flexible Parent Meetings

Describe how the school will offer a flexible number of meetings, such as meetings in the morning or evening and different days of the week. The school may provide with Title I funds, transportation, child care, or home visits, as such services relate to parent and family engagement. Response:

Our Annual Title I meeting will be held in the evening. If requested, we will hold another meeting during the school day to accommodate parents who work during the evening times. The meeting will be advertised on the school marquee, website, newsletter and weekly call-out. Teachers participate in parent/teacher conferences that offer a variety of days/times to accommodate parent schedules. If a parent is not able to meet in person, a telephone conference will be set up. Our Family Engagement Center will be open during the school days as well as during evening meetings and events; such as report card nights, SAC, APT, family events. Title I funds will be used to provide materials, supplies, and food for parent meetings and workshops.

Title I Parent and Family Engagement Plan

- If the school wide program plan under Section 1114 (b)(2) is not satisfactory to the parents of participating children, the school will include submit the parents' comments with the plan that will be made available to the local education agency [Section 1118(c)(5)].

Response:

Umatilla Elementary School will hold an annual Title I meeting at the beginning of the school year. At this meeting, we will explain to families what Title I is, how it works, and the services/resources available through Title I (for students and families). This meeting will be advertised in the school newsletter, school marquee, weekly call out, school website and school Facebook page. Sign-in sheets, copies of the handouts/PowerPoint, and meeting minutes will be kept in the FSL or CRT's office.

During "Meet the Teacher" and "Curriculum Night", families will be given information regarding school policies, procedures, curriculum, assessments, and expectations. Teachers will follow the district blueprints and they will also collect data through i-Ready and content area tests will determine classroom instruction. Families are provided with their students grades through Skyward. Families of students who are served through the ESE program, ELL program, and MTSS Tier 3 are invited to attend meetings, an invitation is sent home with the student.

Each grade level will offer two report card nights per a school year. Teachers and administrators are available to meet with families at these meetings as well, or in addition to these meetings. If families are unable to attend in person, a telephone conference is scheduled. Sign-in sheets and conference forms will be kept.

Accessibility

Describe how the school will provide full opportunities for participation in parent and family engagement activities for all parents (including parents with limited English proficiency, disabilities, and migratory children). Include how the school plans to share information related to school and parent programs, meetings, school reports, and other activities in an understandable and uniform format and to the extent practical, in a language parents can understand [Section 1118(e)(5) and 1118(f)].

Response:

Families are provided with opportunities to be involved in their child's education throughout the school year. Opportunities include involvement and participation in our Meet the Teacher /Curriculum Night, Report Card Conferences, STEAM night, SAC meetings, APT meetings. Translators for Spanish speaking families are available at these times

Through our Family Resource Center, computers/ipads will be available for families to check out so that students and families will have access to programs at home.

For families of students with special needs/disabilities will be notified in writing of meetings for their child.

In general, family notifications are provided via school newsletter, school website, school marquee, call outs, Facebook, and letters/forms sent home with students. Notifications can be made available in Spanish.
