Mission Statement

Parental Involvement Mission Statement

Response:

Pinemount Elementary is a united school community where learning is recognized as a lifelong process and education is the key to the future. A nurturing atmosphere is provided which challenges individuals to take risks in order to realize their potential. Together we are committed to the development of curious, well rounded, responsible citizens. The school's parent and family involvement program is a crucial component in achieving the mission.

Involvement of Parents

Describe how the school will involve parents in an organized, ongoing, and timely manner, in the planning, review, and improvement of Title I programs including involvement in the decisions regarding how funds for Title I will be used (ESEA Section 1116).

Response:

Pinemount offers many ways in which our parents can become involved. Pinemount will offer the following activities for our families: Meet the Teacher, Open House, Title Annual Meeting, Parent Conference Evenings, Volunteer Orientations, PTO meetings, SAC meetings, Mornings with Moms, Donuts with Dad, and Family Reading Events, Step Up Night, Science Night, FSA Reveal Night, Bingo for Books. Information on dates, times, and activities will be sent out to parents through Pinemount Pipeline (school newsletter), informative flyers, the school marquee, the school website, Facebook, Class Dojo and School Messenger (call out system). Parents who serve on the School Advisory Council (SAC), form one of the entities of the school. Pinemount's SAC will also have input on the School Improvement Plan (SIP) and conduct a midyear review of purchases and data. The SAC members review and discuss strategies and activities for the SIP and for the Parent and Family Engagement Plan (PFEP). Parents are surveyed for input on activities, trainings, and material they need to help their children. Expenditure of the Parent Involvement Funds will be discussed at the SAC meetings and the use of these funds will support these activities. Documentation will be on the agenda of the SAC meetings, as well as participation logs, surveys, and sign in sheets. Parent attendance for all activities will be reviewed and reported on at the SAC meetings.

Coordination and Integration with Other Federal Programs

Describe how the school will coordinate and integrate parent and family engagement programs and activities that teach parents how to help their children at home, to the extent feasible and appropriate, including but not limited to, other federal programs such as: Head Start, Early Reading First, Even Start, Home Instruction Programs for Preschool Youngsters, the Parents as Teachers Program, public preschool, Title I, Part C, Title II, Title III, Title IV, and Title VI.

Response:

Our school offers opportunities for all of our families including but not limited to VPK, Pre-K Handicap, Kindergarten- 5th grades and homeschool parents to attend our parent involvement events. During these events we offer suggestions on ways parents can help their child become better readers and more proficient in math.

count	Program	Coordination
1	IDEA	Students are not excluded. Funding supports integration and coordination of parent involvement and activities that teach parents how to help their child at home.
2	Title I, Part C - Migrant Students	Students are encouraged to attend parent teacher conferences and parent involvement events.
3	Title II	Title II coordinates with Title I to provide professional development for our instructional staff.
4	Title III - ELL Students	All ELL students are encouraged to attend all of our after-school events as well as any evening and morning school events.
5	Title IV	Funding provides students with a well rounded education including programs such as college and career counseling, STEM, arts, civics: Supports safe and healthy students with comprehensive school mental health, drug and violence prevention, and health and nutrition, along with supporting the effective use of technology.
6	Title V	Funding supports integration and coordination of parent involvement and activities that teach parents how to help their child at home.
7	Title IX - Homeless Education	Homeless students are offered the same events that all of are families are offered. We do not let lack of finances hinder these children from any activities.
8	Suwannee Valley 4 C's Head Start, Early Learning Coalition of Fl. Gateway and community daycares.	Workshops for VPK and PreK daycare staff on what to expect in kindergarten and how they can assist in preparing the child for school.

Annual Parent Meeting

Describe the specific steps the school will take to conduct an annual meeting designed to inform parents and families of participating children about the school's Title I program, the nature of the Title I program (schoolwide or targeted assistance), Adequate Yearly Progress, school choice, and the rights of parents. Include timeline, persons responsible, and evidence the school will use to demonstrate the effectiveness of the activity [Section 1118(c)(1)].

Response:

We hold a Title I Annual meeting twice a year to keep our families well informed of the programs and benefits offered to our students due to being a Title I school. We hold one of these meetings in the evening around 6:00 p.m. and one during the school day around 10:00 a.m. Offering two different meetings allows parent who work different hours the ability to attend. During the meeting we include a power point which includes all of the above topics. We also have this information in a hard copy as well to pass out parents as they register.

count	Activity/Tasks	Frequency	Person Responsible	Timeline	Evidence of Effectiveness
1	Annual Title I Meeting (Title I program, Type of Program, School Grade, SPAR, School Choice, Rights of Parents)	2 times a year	CRT Title I Coordinator	September 2019 November 2019	Sign in sheets for Title I Annual Meeting will show an increase in parent and family participation information. Parent involvement surveys will show parent awareness of the Title I program.
2	School Newsletter (Title I Updates)	August September 2018	CRT Title I Coordinator	Monthly beginning August 2019	A copy of the newsletter will be kept and the sign in sheets from the event will be collected.
3	Title 1 Brochure	yearly	CRT Title I Coordinator	September 2019	A copy will be kept for documentation that it went home.
4	Advertise Title I Parent Notification Letters / Flyers/ Marquee	August September 2018	CRT Title 1 Coordinator		Flyer will be kept of advertising the event. Sign in sheets will be collected to prove event took place.

Parent Notifications

Describe how the school will provide each family with timely notification of their right to request information on the professional qualifications of the student's classroom teachers and paraprofessionals.

Response:

Parents will be sent home a notice about their right to request information on the professional qualifications of the student's classroom teachers and paraprofessional. This information will also be posted on our school webpage and included in our school newsletter, it is also available in the front office notebook.

Describe how the school will notify each family, in a timely manner, when their child has been assigned, or has been taught for four or more consecutive weeks, by a teacher who is out of field or does not meet the state licensure requirements.

Response:

Here at Pinemount Elementary School we send home a written notice to parents when their child has been assigned or taught for more than four consecutive weeks, by a teacher who is out of field. When a new student enrolls in our school this information is provided at the time of enrollment.

How will the school provide each family with an individualized annual report about the performance of their child(ren) on the State and Local assessment (ESEA Section 1116 - Florida State Statute 1008.22)

Response:

Each parent receives their child's FSA score report when made available by the state. If the FSA scores are released over the summer when students are not in school then we utilize our School Messenger Call

Out program to notify parents that score are available for pick up. We will also send out a Class Dojo message. We also post that score are available for pick up on our marquee. If scores have not been picked up by parent, then we send them home the start of the new year.

Local assessments results (iReady, FLKRS, Performance Matters) are all shared in a timely manner by printing the parent reports or by sending home Data Chat forms and is also shared at parent conferences from the compact.

Flexible Parent Meetings

Describe how the school will offer a flexible number of meetings, such as meetings in the morning or evening, and will the school provide, with Title I funds, transportation, child care, or home visits, as such services related to parent and family engagement [ESEA Section 1116].

Response:

Pinemount will offer a flexible number of meetings to offer parents a variety of times and days of the week to be an active member of their child's education. The school will also offer childcare for these meetings that are outside of the school day. The school will schedule meetings on different days of the week and times of the day to accommodate differing parent schedules. Printed materials will be available in the front office for any parent to pick up that is unable to attend. We can also send home materials for any parenting requesting additional activities. We provide child care at all after hours meetings. We send home flyers letting parents know when these meetings are held. We also send out Class Dojo messages and do a school wide call out to remind parents of these meetings.

Building Capacity

How will the school implement activities that will build the capacity for meaningful parent/family involvement?

Response:

Pinemount Elementary offers many different ways to include parents in the education process. We offer parent conference nights where parents can schedule one on one meeting with their child's teacher in a afterhours time slot. We also have Mornings with Moms and Donuts with Dad. Both of these parent involvement activities are scheduled first thing in the morning where parents have the opportunity to bring their child to school and eat breakfast with their child while being educated on ways they can help their child academically at home. We also offer several evening events throughout the school year. All of our teachers try to make parent contact in the first three weeks of school to also help build that relationship for positive parent and family involvement. Our upper grades use a planner which is another way that parents can send messages to the teacher or to request a parent conference. All of our teachers also use Class Dojo as a way to bridge the home school communication barrier.

How will the school implement activities that will build relationships with the community to improve student achievement?

Response:

Pinemount Elementary School has a great reputation in the community. We partner with the Lake City Reporter to advertise the events held at school as well as send in pictures and write ups about the positive activities happening at our school. We provide a food backpack program where a local church donates food and we make food bags for 19 different needy families in our school. We send home community notes in our students book bags to advertise happenings in the county. We partner with United Way with the Reading Pals program. This program allows for volunteers to come in and read with our kindergarten students. We also have guest readers from the community come during Celebrate

Literacy Week. Our younger grades also do a study on community helpers where we have different businesses partner with us and come and educate the students about their profession (Columbia County Fire Department, Florida Power and Light, Army, Columbia County Sheriff's Department)

How will the school provide materials and trainings to assist parents / families to work with their child to improve their child's academic achievement?

Response:

Here at Pinemount everytime we have a parent involvement event we try to send the parents home with some kind of activity that the parent can continue working with the child at home. We offer cold read practice, flash cards, math games, fluency practice, comprehension question stems, and take home books. During the summer we also send our students home with some summer slide materials. We also have a Parent Resource Room where it is outfitted with many educational games and activities that parents can check out and use with their child at home. We also offer Family Reading Events every Monday to allow parents the opportunity to utilize our school's Media Center to check out books and use the computers.

How will the school provide other reasonable support for parent and family engagement activities? (ESEA Section 1116).

Response:

We will send pictures and write ups about events happening at our school to the Lake City Reporter (local newspaper) to keep the community involved in school activities. Pinemount also posts important events on our school sign, school website and monthly Pinemount Pipeline to keep parents and community members informed. We also send out a calendar of events that is printed in the Lake City Reporter and is also posted on the local news television station. We also reach out to our school business connections to assist with various activities. We also invite area businesses to come in and assist with community awareness.

Other Activities

Describe how other activities, such as parent resource centers (rooms), the school will conduct to encourage and support parents and families in more meaningful engagement in the education of their children [ESEA Section 1116].

Response:

Pinemount Elementary is always willing to support parents and families in ways to engagement in the education of their children. We have a parent resource room that we offer to parents to check out materials during every parent involvement activity. We also write a blurb in the Pinemount Pipeline encouraging parents to utilize the materials. At parent teacher conferences the teachers also encourage the parents to stop by and check out materials. At Step-Up Night we offer Summer Slide folders which include materials that parents may use to help prepare their child for the next school year.

List all activities that will be implemented:

1.	Parent Resource Room is available for parents to check out materials to assist the education process at home.
2.	Step Up Nights- This event is to inform the parents of the expectations for the next school year and provide resources to assist the parents in education during the summer.

3.	Open House- This event is for parents to see the curriculum that the teachers are using in their classrooms and to become familiar with ways they can assist their child at home.
4.	Reading and Math parent involvement events- These event are to assist the parents in ways that they can better support their child at home.
5	Family Reading Events are offered every Monday afternoon for all parents to come and read with their child in the media center and take AR tests.
6	Science Night- This event will inform parents of the county science fair expectations and ways to increase science academically.

Communication

Describe how the school will provide timely information about the Title I programs?

Response:

Pinemount Elementary will send home monthly newsletters to let parent know the events that are taking place and how they can get involved. We will also send home flyers of particular events detailing the when and where if the event. We will also use Class DOJO to get more information out electricionally as well as our closed Facebook page. We will also use our electric sign to advertise our parent involvement events and keep the Google calendar up to date on our webpage.

Explain how the school will describe and explain the curriculum of the school, the forms of assessment used to measure student progress and the achievement levels students are expected to obtain?

Response:

Pinemount hosts an Open House in September explaining to the parents the curriculum used to teach the standards. The teachers also discuss the iReady and FSA testing that we give. We will hold parent conference nights where our parents can come and get the latest data from their child's local assessments. We will hold these data chats with our students and then with our parents at the parent conferences to make the parent aware of the score the student made on the iReady assessments and the state FSA. We will also hold a 3rd grade Parent Reveal Night that parents may see the score their child received on their mock FSA. Our third grade students will take a mock FSA. Our parents will be invited to come to school one evening and see how their child performed on the mock test. The teachers will share information about testing and the expectations during the test. The teachers also address any questions that our parents may have.

Explain how, if requested by parents, the school provides opportunities for regular meetings to formulate suggestions and to participate, as appropriate, in decisions relating to the education of their children?

Response:

Our teachers hold at least two parent conferences per school year with their students' parents. We will schedule more conferences if needed throughout the year to help promote student success. We also hold several parent involvement events to assist parents in a better understanding of the curriculum and to provided extra resources to assist parents. We also hold weekly Family Reading Nights to allow parents the opportunity to come and read books in the media center with their students to promote the love of reading. Parents are also invited to attend the School Advisory Council (SAC) meeting that are held about 6 times a year. Parents have the opportunity to offer their opinions and suggestions about the school.

Explain the process the school will use to submit parents / families comments if the schoolwide plan is not satisfactory to them (ESEA Section 1116)?

Response:

Our district sends out a county wide school survey that gives the parents the opportunity to voice any concerns that they may have. Our principal and CRT also have an open door policy that allows parents to express their concerns. We as a lead team analyzes the data from the surveys to see how we can improve our school. We strive to make everyone feel as though their child's education is important and the needs of all individual students are met.

Accessibility

Describe how the school will provide full opportunities for participation in parent / family engagement activities for all parents / families?

Response:

Here at Pinemount we offer family engagement activities on various days of the week as well as various starting times. We traditionally held most events in the evening to accommodate working parents. Over the last few years we have also offered events in the morning to accommodate parents who work non-traditional work hours. We send out a survey at the end of each school year to poll our parents on the best days and time for them. We use this data to schedule our parent involvement activities. We also have folders that include the information from the meetings for parents that could not attend the event.

Describe how the school will share information related to school and parent / family programs, meetings, school reports, and other activities in an understandable, uniform format, and in languages that the parents / families can understand?

Response:

At Pinemount we send out monthly school newsletters to keep parents aware of the events going on around the school. We also use this newsletter to get out information to parent. We use the School Messenger (call out system) to let parents know when tests score are available for pick up and to let parents know our school grade. We use this messaging system to also remind parents of events that are going on. We always advertise out SAC meetings to offer all parents the opportunity to be involved in the decision making of the school. We send home letters in different languages for our ELL students. We also have a FACEBOOK school page and our school uses Class Dojo to communicate with parents.

Discretionary Activities

Discretionary School Level Parental and Family Engagement Policy Components

Will the school provide any activities that are not required, but will be paid for through Title I, Part A funding (for example, home visits, transportation for meetings, activities related to parent / family engagement, etc.)

The school parent and family engagement policy may include additional discretionary activities that the school, in consultation with the parents, chooses to undertake to build parents' capacity for involvement in the school to support their children's academic achievement.
