Learning Outcomes

Strengthen your shared vision, increase accountability, and help get everyone moving in the same direction towards the improvement of Tier 1 instruction.

Norms

- Be respectful of time and technology.
- We will practice equity of voice and mutual accountability of the work.
- We will practice vulnerability, engage in problem-solving, and push each other's thinking.
- We will seek clarity, respect our conversations, and maintain confidentiality in a transparent, judgment-free zone.

Partner Discussion

Partner A shares first...

What current processes does your district have in place for developing the capacity and building resiliency of your instructional leaders?

Observation Focus: Learner Engagement

In the Classroom:

- Record what students are doing in the lesson on your Classroom Observation Note Catcher.
- Use the Learner Engagement Rubric to indicate a level of implementation.

In the Classroom:
What Observers Do		Record What Students Are Doing
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Observe the number of students participating in the discussion or activity.</li> <li>• Listen for learners taking the lead in discussions.</li> <li>• Listen for questions that students ask each other during the discussions.</li> <li>• Listen for students exchanging ideas or accepting others' opinions or perspectives.</li> <li>• Determine if students are leading an exchange or discussion about a topic that is relevant to them.</li> <li>• Take note of students commenting or asking questions that indicate they know why the content, activity or project is important to understand and complete</li> <li>• Observe roles and responsibilities in partner or group work</li> <li>• Record task details aligned to learning goals or lesson objectives</li> <li>• How was the lesson chunked and how are the students "chewing" /processing learning</li> </ul>
Active Participation	1-Beginning	2-Emerging	3-Developed	4-Well Developed
Student Learning	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>*Limited student engagement, with the exception of hand raising. Some students are off-task or have disengaged from the lesson and are not redirected.</li> <li>*The lesson is teacher-led, and students progress through new learning with some challenges with productivity.</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>*Most students remained focused and on-task during the lesson. Students answer questions when asked, but not all students have the opportunity to actively respond.</li> <li>*The teacher leads the lesson, and students productively progress through new learning.</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>*All students remain on-task, responding to frequent opportunities for active engagement throughout the lesson.</li> <li>Both teacher and students lead the lesson, and students productively progress through new learning.</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li> All students remain on-task and proactively engaged throughout the lesson.</li> <li>*Students take ownership of learning new content and actively seek ways to improve their performance.</li> </ul>
Instructional Design	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>*Lesson relies mainly on direct instruction with few opportunities for student engagement through application.</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>*The lesson relies on one or two strategies designed to engage students, focusing more on direct instruction than student engagement through application.</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>*Lesson provides multiple strategies designed to maximize student engagement, and contribution is monitored to ensure full participation.</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>*The lesson achieves a focus on student-centered engagement where the students monitor and adjust their own participation.</li> </ul>

What might be some ways to follow up and monitor the impact of professional learning?

3.2.1. Activity

- Think of three ways to follow up and monitor the impact of professional learning.
- Write one idea on each of your sticky notes.
- Go clockwise around your table. Each team member shares one of their responses until everyone has a turn.
- Continue around the table until each team member shares all three of their responses.

Save the Last Word for Me-

On Your Own Think Time:

Participants each silently read the quotes and process what the quotes mean to them by highlighting keywords/phrases or recording notes.

Save the Last Word for Me

Group Discussion:

- Please stand up and create a group of three to four participants. Choose a timekeeper (who also participates) who has a watch.
- When the group is ready, the person who has been in education the longest will be the first presenter. The presenter will begin with quote #1 and read it out loud to the group. The presenter says nothing about the quote; just read it out loud for the group.
- The other participants each have 1 minute or less to respond to the discussed quote—saying what it makes them think about, what questions it raises for them, etc.
- Lastly, the presenter has 2 minutes or less to build on what the other participants have said and sum up their thoughts and opinions.
- The same pattern is followed until all group members have had a chance to be the presenter and have “the last word.”
