3. Identify partnerships that coordinate & integrate Title I and local/federal funds to provide opportunities that encourage and support parents in more fully participating in the education of their children and/or to help support learning at home.

Title IV-Homeless	School staff and local churches provide support for homeless families.
Migrant
Preschool Programs
Title III-ESOL
SAC
PTO/PTA	Parent-Teacher liason coordinate parent events and communicate concerns to the Governing Board.
Community Agencies/Business Partners	Publix charities provides catering needs for parent meetings.

4. Utilize strategies to ensure meaningful communication and accessibility.

Describe the methods that will be used to ensure meaningful, ongoing communication between home and school.	We will use Class Dojo to contact parents for positive interactions with their students, we use agenda to communicate classroom assignments and homework, and we will conduct annual IEP meetings and Parent/teacher conferences quarterly.
Describe how you notify each family in a timely manner when their child has been assigned, or has been taught for four or more consecutive weeks, by a teacher who is out of field.	Letters are sent home with every student that has been taught for four or more consecutive weeks by a teacher who is out of field. A copy of the letter and a list of the parents who receive the letter is kept on file as documentation for auditing purposes.
Explain how parents are provided information regarding the curriculum, achievement levels, progress monitoring and assessments.	Communication regarding the curriculum, achievement levels, progress monitoring, and assessments will be provided through IEP meetings and parent/teacher conferences quarterly.
Describe how your school provides information to parents in their native language. What languages do you provide?	We use the translation documents on the Polk County School Board Website and we use translators at the school. We provide communication in Spanish and English.
How are the needs of parents with disabilities accommodated to ensure they have access to meetings, workshops, and/or events?	All our families are parents with disabilities. All of our meetings, workshops, and/events include accommodations.
Describe the opportunities parents have to participate in their child's education.	The parents are involved in the development of their child's IEP goals.

5. Educate and build the capacity of school staff on ways in which to work with and engage families effectively as well as the importance of parent engagement in increasing student achievement. Explain your plan for this school year.

Topic/Title	How does this help staff build school/parent relationships?	Format for Implementation: workshop, book study, presenter, etc.	Who is the audience?	Tentative Date/Time
Mental Health Awareness	Proactive communication regarding risk factors of a mental health breakdown will assist the student in coping strategies and staff with prevention. 47.83% of survey responses indicated that was the primary focus for parents.	Workshop	Staff, students, and parents	8/18/20
ESE Advocacy/IEP	Training on ESE advocacy and IEP training is another area of focus. Based on the survey monkey results, 34.78% of survey responses indicated that was a secondary focus for parents. Parents will be more knowledgeable about how to advocate for their child and the services that the school are to provide.	ESE consultant	Staff, students, and parents	9/15/20

Parent & Family Engagement Allocation

**Elementary schools are required to hold at least one face to face conference in which the compact is discussed with parents. A conference agenda and parent signed copy of the compact should be submitted to Title I Crate as evidence.*

\ Evidence of the input gathered and how it was/will be used should be available on Title I Crate.*

2. Hold an annual meeting for families to explain the Title I program and the rights of parents to be involved.

Tentative date & time(s) of meeting	August 4, 2020
How are parents notified of the meeting?	Email through FOCUS
What information is provided at the meeting?	The Title I District Parent and Family Engagement Coordinator provides each school with a Power Point Presentation and agenda that incorporates information on: The Title I Program, Use of Funds Overview, Curriculum and Assessment Information, Parent and Family Engagement Plan, Compact, Ways Parents Can Be Involved and Upcoming Parent Engagement Events. Schools may personalize the Power Point by elaborating on how their Title I funds are used to increase student achievement and promote parent and family engagement, ways parents can be involved at their school, how to access staff, and information on the school's curriculum.
How are parents informed of their rights?	Polk County Public Schools Title I program provides all Title I schools with a letter informing parents of their rights. This letter is sent home with all students via backpack the first week of school. Schools are also required to have a copy of the "Parents Right To Know" letter on their school website and in a parent and family engagement notebook kept in the front office. The district Title I office monitors and keeps documentation of this on file.
What barriers will you address to encourage parents/families to attend?	Transportation and the timing of meetings were identified as the existing barriers to parent engagement. We will offer multiple formats of involvement instead of having only one format for their participation.
How will you get feedback from parents about the meeting?	We will have surveys available after the meeting and ask them to complete and return to the school.
How do parents who are not able to attend receive information from the meeting?	We will use multiple platforms to provide access to the parents. If they are not able to access or not available to attend the information, meeting minutes will be provided by email.

Parent and Family Engagement Plan 2020-2021

Language & Literacy Academy for Learning

Each Title I school shall jointly develop with parents and family members of participating children, a written plan that shall describe how the school will carry out the requirements mentioned below. Parents shall be notified of the plan in an understandable and uniform format and, to the extent practical, provided in a language the parents can understand. The school plan must be made available to the local community and updated and agreed upon by parents periodically to meet the changing needs of parents and the school.

School's vision for engaging families:

Our vision for parent engagement is to aggressively recruit and retain parents as partners in education by using multiple platforms for parent outreach.

What is Required:

Assurances: We will:

- ☒ Involve an adequate representation of parents, or establish a parent advisory board to represent families, in developing and evaluating the "School Parent and Family Engagement Plan" that describes how the school will carry out its required family engagement activities.
- ☒ Hold an annual meeting for families to explain the Title I program and the rights of parents to be involved. Offer other meetings/workshops at flexible times.
- ☒ Use a portion of Title I funds to support parent and family engagement and involve parents in deciding how these funds are to be used.
- ☒ Involve parents in the planning, review, and improvement of the Title I program.
- ☒ Develop a school-parent compact that outlines how parents, students, and school staff will share the responsibility for improving student achievement, and describes how parents and teachers will communicate.
- ☒ Offer assistance to parents in understanding the education system and the state standards, and how to support their children's achievement.
- ☒ Provide materials and training to help parents support their child's learning at home. Educate teachers and other school staff, including school leaders, on how to engage families effectively.
- ☒ Coordinate with other federal and state programs, including preschool programs.
- ☒ Provide information in a format and language parents can understand, and offer information in other languages as feasible.
- ☒ Include the School and District Parent and Family Engagement Plans on our school website and in the Parent Engagement Notebook in the front office.
