

Title I, Part A Parent & Family Engagement Plan (PFEP).

I, Kathy Gibbons, do hereby certify that all facts, figures, and representations made in this application are true, correct, and consistent with the statement of assurances for these waivers. Furthermore, all applicable statutes, regulations, and procedures; administrative and programmatic requirements; and procedures for fiscal control and maintenance of records will be implemented to ensure proper accountability for the expenditure of funds on this project. All records necessary to substantiate these requirements will be available for review by appropriate state and federal staff. I further certify that all expenditures will be obligated on or after the effective date and prior to the termination date of the project. Disbursements will be reported only as appropriate to this project, and will not be used for matching funds on this or any special project, where prohibited.

Assurances

- The school will be governed by the statutory definition of parent and family engagement, and will carry out programs, activities, and procedures in accordance with the definition;
- Involve the parents of children served in Title I, Part A in decisions about how Title I, Part A funds reserved for parent and family engagement are spent;
- Jointly develop/revise with parents the school parent and family engagement plan and distribute it to parents of participating children and make available the parent and family engagement plan to the local community;
- Involve parents, in an organized, ongoing, and timely way, in the planning, review, and improvement of programs under this part, including the planning, review, and improvement of the school parent and family engagement plan and the joint development of the schoolwide program plan;
- Use the findings of the parent and family engagement plan review to design strategies for more effective parent and family engagement, and to revise, if necessary, the school's parent and family engagement plan;
- If the plan for Title I, Part A, is not satisfactory to the parents of participating children, the school will submit parent comments with the plan when the school submits the plan;
- Provide to each parent an individual student report about the performance of their child on the state assessment in at least mathematics, language arts, and reading;
- Provide each parent timely notice when their child has been assigned or has been taught for four (4) or more consecutive weeks by a teacher who is not highly qualified; and
- Provide each parent timely notice information regarding their right to request information on the professional qualifications of the student's classroom teachers and paraprofessionals.

Mission Statement

Parent & Family Engagement Mission Statement (Optional)

Response: The heartbeat of T. DeWitt Taylor Middle-High School is working together to achieve academic excellence, self-worth, and multicultural respect through a caring environment.

T. DeWitt Taylor Middle-High School Believes

• ...that ALL students have a right to learn in a safe and secure learning environment.

• ...that the strength of T. DeWitt Taylor Middle-High School is based upon a cooperative working relationship with our stakeholders - parents, students, teachers, and community members.

· ...that T. DeWitt Taylor Middle-High has a strong and positive academic learning climate in which teaching and learning are actively supported.

T. DeWitt Taylor Middle-High believes parent involvement is essential in actively supporting student achievement. Through collaborative efforts of all involved parties we will continually support our students and parents. Together as a team we can!

Involvement of Parents

Describe how the school will involve parents in an organized, ongoing, and timely manner, in the planning, review, and improvement of Title I programs including involvement in the decisions regarding how funds for parent and family engagement will be used.

Response: Parents will be invited and encouraged to become active members of the School Advisory Council (SAC). At the SAC meetings parents will be provided information regarding the school's Title I allocation. T. DeWitt Taylor Middle-High School's Title I Parent-School Compact is reviewed annually with input from the parents. Parents will be allowed to provide input in the development and decision-making process of Title I activities related to the school.

School Advisory members are made up of 51% demographic makeup and include representatives from the school who are employees and parents and representative of the school faculty. The members have been elected and/or appointed to be in this representative group.

SAC minutes are taken at each of the meetings and parent/community input is taken at every meeting.

Additionally an annual evaluation will be conducted using surveys completed by parents, staff, and students. The results will be analyzed to evaluate the effectiveness of the school's parent involvement program.

The annual Title I meeting will be offered 2 times and provided during flexible hours and different dates. After each parent event, surveys are provided for all stakeholders to complete.

Input is taken for both the SIP (School Improvement Plan) and PFEP (Parent Family Engagement Plan) by having input surveys in English and Spanish available at the front desk. The PFEP is available upon request; parents notified through school website, flyer sent home, SAC (School Advisory Council), marquee, Volusia Messenger, and a copy is kept in front desk lobby.

Flexible Parent Meetings

Describe how the school will offer a flexible number of meetings, such as meetings in the morning or evening, and may provide with Title I funds, transportation, child care, or home visits, as such services related to parent and family engagement.

Response: T. DeWitt Taylor Middle-High will offer a flexible number of meetings, such as meetings in the morning, during the school day, or in the evening to better accommodate parents. School counseling services are available for students/guardians before school, during lunches, and after school. Teachers will hold conferences, individually or by team, with parents of children in their classrooms either in the morning, during the teacher's planning time, or in the afternoon. Also, the school may host several content area specific trainings/workshops where childcare will be provided, if needed. Presentations such as Financial Aid Parent Night and Open House/Annual Title I will be offered with flexible dates and times. Another opportunity for parents that may be offered are grade level specific trainings. Input for the School Improvement Plan and the Parent Family Involvement Plan is solicited from parents; we schedule input times in the morning, afternoon, and evening to ensure that parents can participate. Input is also requested at the Title I Annual Meeting and at SAC (School Advisory Council) meetings.

Building Capacity

Describe how the school will implement activities that will build the capacity for strong parent and family engagement, in order to ensure effective involvement of parents and families and to support a partnership among the school involved, parents, and the community to improve student academic achievement. Describe the actions the school will take to provide materials and training to help parents and families work with their child to improve their child's academic achievement. ### Other Activities

Describe the other activities, such as parent resource centers, the school will conduct to encourage and support parents and families in more fully participating in the education of their children.

Response: T. DeWitt Taylor Middle-High incorporates various activities to encourage and support parents to more fully participate in the education of their children. Throughout the year, any activity the school presents are shared in the parents' native language, English or Spanish, via School messenger message system. This system allows the message to go directly to the phone number selected by the parent. Additionally, the information is posted on the marquee, in the front office, and on the school's website. Flyers are posted in both languages in select community locations, such as churches and the post office. This information is shared at least one to two weeks in advance with reminders throughout the year. The school's website has information posted for the entire school year which includes all the parent trainings/workshops, graduation date/location, and SAC dates, to name a few. School Advisory Council (SAC) and Gridiron Football club are parent/community groups that encourage and advocate parent participation. Parent conferences are scheduled before, during, and after school with appropriate school personnel as needed to address the students' and/or parents' needs. Additionally, the media center is available both in the morning and afternoon, offering parents the opportunity to come in and use the computers. Parents will be able to check on their students' grades by accessing Focus. Parents may contact teachers via email or ask questions of the media specialist who can direct the parent to the appropriate personnel. The social worker and migrant advocate provide information and resources as deemed necessary. Parents are also afforded the opportunity to attend the FACT Fair in the west region which will share school and community resources with parents and focus on teaching parents' strategies to increase student achievement. Both school-wide and community participation in community service related projects (such as blood drive and mentoring) are encouraged with our parents, who may be volunteers and/or business partners. Continuing from the previous year recommendation from SAC, the media center will be available mornings and afternoons for parents to receive assistance in Focus gradebook, and learn more about it along with other resources available on the internet and have an opportunity to dialog about strategies to best help their student.

Communication

Describe how the school will provide parents and families of participating children the following:

- Timely information about the Title I programs;
- Description and explanation of the curriculum at the school, the forms of academic assessment used to measure student progress, and the proficiency levels students are expected to meet;
- If requested by parents, opportunities for regular meetings to formulate suggestions and to participate, as appropriate, in decisions relating to the education of their children; and
- If the schoolwide program plan is not satisfactory to the parents of participating children, the school will include submit the parents' comments with the plan that will be made available to the local education agency.

Response: At both of the Annual Title I meetings of parents in September, T. DeWitt Taylor Middle-High School will hold a general meeting where information will be presented about the Title I programs, the curriculum, FOCUS, tutoring, and academic assessments. At the Annual Title I meetings, parents receive a brochure relating the Title I program in English or Spanish. Parents will learn about the school program, how to schedule parent-teacher conferences, and how to participate in decisions related to the education of their child. During the annual Open House, parents will be invited to visit their child's classrooms and meet staff. During the classroom visits, teachers will provide additional information on the subjects they teach, assessment plans, and how parents can help at home. The same information will be provided in an informational packet distributed the following day for all parents who were unable to attend. Teachers will maintain sign-in sheets and provide a copy to the assistant principal who will also maintain documentation on the dissemination of information, distribution methods, and timelines. Meetings will be posted on the school website. The School messenger message will be sent out in English and Spanish alerting the parents to both the importance and content of the annual meeting. This information will continue to be shared at various meetings and trainings. Sign-in sheets and event surveys are maintained at each event on the campus to gauge attendance and feedback.

Accessibility

Describe how the school will provide full opportunities for participation in parent and family engagement activities for all parents (including parents with limited English proficiency, disabilities, and migratory children). Include how the school plans to share information related to school and parent programs, meetings, school reports, and other activities in an understandable and uniform format and to the extent practical, in a language parents can understand.

Response: T. DeWitt Taylor Middle-High will provide full opportunities for participation in parental involvement activities of all parents (including parents with limited English proficiency, disabilities, and migratory children). Information regarding parent participation is provided to parents via school website, Volusia Messenger phone messages, parent/teacher conferences, student backpacks, workshops, and meetings. District information is available in English and Spanish. Written communication is also provided to parents in Spanish as needed. School documents are available in Spanish and are explained to parents. When requested, the District will provide a translator if school staff are not able to assist. Bilingual teacher(s) and parent liaison translate information for parents over the phone and at conferences. ESOL tutoring is available specifically for ESOL students to assist them in both subject area and language acquisition, and this information is shared with parents at individual parent conference. Parents with special needs are accommodated. T. DeWitt Taylor Middle-High is handicapped accessible. Additionally, the Migrant Advocate works closely with the school to ensure that the parents of the migrant students are receiving the information at home through a home visit if the parents are unable to attend.
