Communication

Describe how the school will provide parents of participating children the following [Section 1118(c)(4)]:

- Timely information about the Title I programs [Section 1118(c)(4)(A)];
- Description and explanation of the curriculum at the school, the forms of academic assessment used to measure student progress, and the proficiency levels students are expected to meet [Section 1118(c)(4)(B)];
- If requested by parents, opportunities for regular meetings to formulate suggestions and to participate, as appropriate, in decisions relating to the education of their children[Section 1118(c)(4)(C)]; and
- If the schoolwide program plan under Section 1114 (b)(2) is not satisfactory to the parents of participating children, the school will include submit the parents' comments with the plan that will be made available to the local education agency [Section 1118(c)(5)].

Response: At the annual parent meeting, Arthur & Polly Mays Conservatory of the Arts will hold an orientation/overview of the Title I program, the school's curriculum/special programs, and formal assessments used to measure student academic progress. Parents will receive information about the assessment proficiency levels and expected levels of performance. They will be informed of the Code of Student Conduct, Progressive Discipline Plan, and Dress Code/Uniform Policy. Parents will be invited to all PTSA and EESAC meetings held at the school so that parents may be included in the school's decision-making process. In addition, using the Connect-Ed messaging system, parents will be notified about school functions and when students are absent. This will increase and facilitate communication with parents, provide updates on school functions in both English, Spanish and Creole, and eventually lead to an increase in both parental involvement and student achievement. In addition, parents will be informed of the designated parent/teacher conference day on Fridays. Upon conclusion of the general meeting, parents will be invited to visit their child's teachers to learn more about the subjects they teach, grading policy, classroom procedures and to receive input and ideas on how parents can help at home.
