Direct employment policy, roles and responsibilities

Explain how direct employment of school-based mental health services providers (school psychologists, school social workers, school counselors and other licensed mental health professionals) will reduce staff-to-student ratios.

SCFCS direct employment of our school counselor as well as contracting with Centerstone, allows our school to provide mental health services and counseling to our students which reduces the staff-to-student ratio.

Describe your district's established policies and procedures to increase the amount of time student services personnel spend providing direct mental health services (e.g., review and revision of staffing allocations based on school or student mental health assistance needs).

SCFCS school counselor and school nurse is supported by student services team, including a college advisor, and has a working relationship with instructors as curriculum for academic coaching is collaboratively designed by the counselor and the teachers. The head of school monitors the opportunities available for collaboration and assists with the scheduling needed for students. Students may have direct mental health services at school, including tele-health opportunities, to allow for a safe and relaxed environment for services.

Describe the role of school based mental health providers and community-based partners in the implementation of your evidence-based mental health program.

School based mental health provider is the school counselor and makes referrals to certified mental health professionals for students and families for in depth care. The school counselor works closely with students and families at school as needed until a referral is appropriate.

State College of Florida Collegiate School utilizes the following community providers:

- Centerstone
- Suncoast Mental Health Services
- Selah Freedom for Human Trafficking and Child Sex Trafficking
