1. Mission and Vision

a. District Mission Statement

"By uniting stakeholders, we will prepare our students to be college and career ready, empower our students to achieve personal excellence, and foster responsible citizens."

b. District Vision Statement

"Leading Together To Achieve Excellence"

2. Supports for School Improvement

a. Alignment of Resources

Describe the process through which the district identifies and aligns all district resources (e.g., personnel, instructional, curricular, policy) in order to meet the needs of all students and maximize desired student outcomes. Include the methodology for coordinating and supplementing federal, state and local funds, services and programs to align to interventions in Priority and Focus schools. Provide the person(s) responsible, frequency of meetings, how an inventory of resources is maintained and any problem-solving activities used to determine how to apply resources for the highest impact.

The Leadership Team will have scheduled meetings in order to monitor the District's MTSS & DIAP. Through these meetings, the leadership team will review and ensure that there are visible connections between the MTSS framework with the District and schools' mission statements and organizational improvement efforts. Through open dialogue the leadership team will ensure alignment between policies and procedures across the district, schools and at all grade levels as delineated in the DIAP. On an ongoing basis, the leadership team will review the district wide assessment data to ensure that all decisions are data driven from the individual student level to the District level. In addition, the leadership team will celebrate and communicate outcomes with all stakeholders. Furthermore, monthly meetings are held with Region VI RED and district staff to provide collaboration and support to DA schools.

b. School Allocation Process

Describe the way in which the district allocates resources to schools. Include the person(s) responsible for this process, frequency of data review and decision making, and processes used to differentiate and monitor resource supports.

The Leadership Team will utilize the 8 Step Problem Solving process to monitor the implementation of the DIAP and MTSS structures to address effectiveness of core instruction, resource allocation (funding and staffing), teacher support systems, and small group and individual student needs. Further, the District Leadership Team meets monthly in order to evaluate the development of MTSS by monitoring consensus, infrastructure, and implementation and to apply strategic problem solving processes to monitor and revise (if necessary) the DIAP. Through the 8 Step Problem Solving process, the District is able to conduct School Instructional Reviews, including in-depth participation of school staff, which further provides opportunities for monitoring the implementation of the DIAP. The District's strategic planning process includes meetings and surveys for staff, parents and community partners (among others) that make recommendations on how the District should focus its resources. In addition, the district staff meets monthly with the Region IV RED to collaborate and support DA schools.

c. Modifications to System Policies and Practices

Identify specific policies and practices the district shall seek to add, modify or remove in order to establish or strengthen systems that support school-based leadership teams to implement interventions. Provide the rationale for the proposed changes and the steps required to make the modifications, including person(s) responsible for implementation and follow-up.

The Leadership Team will have scheduled meetings in order to monitor the District's MTSS and DIAP.

Through these meetings, the leadership team will review and ensure that there are visible connections between the MTSS framework with the District and schools' mission statements and organizational improvement efforts. Through open dialogue the leadership team will ensure alignment between policies and procedures across the district, schools and at all grade levels as delineated in the DIAP. On an ongoing basis, the leadership team will review the district wide assessment data to ensure that all decisions are data driven from the individual student level to the District level. In addition, the leadership team will celebrate and communicate outcomes with all stakeholders.

The content specialists will work directly with the school and district leadership teams to develop a plan to address needs based on student achievement data. The content area specialists, who typically work equally with all schools, will use an adjusted calendar which focuses their efforts in language arts, math, and science at schools with greatest need. The Assistant Superintendent of Curriculum will be responsible for implementing this strategy.

The resource/dean, MTSS resource and STEM resource teachers are not typically allocated in the elementary setting. This strategy will allow school leadership to focus on instructional improvements, while the dean assists in behavior support. The administration, MTSS resource, STEM resource and the dean will also work with teachers to develop positive academic and behavioral strategies that they will implement within their classrooms. The ultimate goal of this strategy would be to phase out the need of these positions. This would be accomplished by implementing positive behavior strategies, increasing student academic rigor, and maximizing instructional engagement. The principal will be responsible for implementing this strategy.

d. Operational Flexibility

Provide the district's definition of "operational flexibility" as provided to schools implementing a District-Managed Turnaround option under section 1008.33, Florida Statutes, or a Turnaround, Transformation or Restart with EMO model under the SIG 1003(g) program as it applies to school-level autonomy over staffing, scheduling and budgeting.

The district is providing the school with operational flexibility for such issues as staffing, calendar/time, and budgeting to implement a comprehensive approach to substantially improve student outcomes. School leaders exercise autonomy to align policies and practices with the major reform efforts outlined in the school's turnaround plan. Examples of resource use will reflect enhanced flexibility and align with the major reform efforts outlined in the school's turnaround plan.

3. Sustainability of Improvement

a. Describe how the district will sustain improvements that are a result of the interventions described in Part III of this plan after the schools' Differentiated Accountability designation of Focus or Priority is removed. Include any plans to reorganize personnel, redistribute resources or reach out to community organizations, unions and other partners to build capacity for and sustainability of improvements.

Sustainable improvement will occur through the school improvement and evaluation processes. Data gathered through the school improvement and evaluation process includes qualitative and quantitative data. The district divisions, community partners, school-based leadership, parents, students, and teachers work together and give input on interventions. The Leadership Team along with the DSAC/CAT includes stakeholder input throughout the process to ensure progress monitoring and to strengthen the interventions. Ongoing interventions throughout the process are evaluated in order to modify and strengthen strategies that are effective in increasing student achievement. The reallocation or reduction of resources is based on specific strategies and programs that contributed to the success of the school. The School Board of Highlands County commits to the sustainability of effective interventions by utilizing various funding sources, strengthening district core practices, and anticipating and solving issues to barriers.

B. Stakeholder Involvement

1. Parental Involvement Plan (PIP) Link

<https://www.floridacims.org/documents/361939>

2. Family and Community Engagement

Describe the district's ongoing mechanisms for engaging families and the community in school improvement efforts.

The Curriculum and Instruction Department leads the development of the District Assistance and Intervention

Plan (DIAP). This department works in tandem with a Community Assessment Team and the District School Advisory Committee that provides input into the district's School Improvement Process. This team is made up of district-level staff, principals, assistant principals, teachers, parents, students and community members.

3. Engagement of School Leadership

Describe how the district involves school leadership in the development and implementation of turnaround plans and other school-level interventions.

This year, the writing of the DIAP was completed in effort with the Curriculum and Instruction staff and Student Services and Federal Programs staff. The plan reflects district-wide initiatives, programs and practices. The Curriculum and Instruction Department ensures that all schools' School Improvement Plans are aligned with the DIAP and the district's Strategic Plan. The DIAP is shared with stakeholders to serve as a guiding resource for our district during the 16-17 school year.

3. Educator Qualitya. School Leadership Teams

Describe the process and criteria by which the district determines and ensures each Focus and Priority school has a school leadership team of high quality, including a principal and assistant principal with a record of increasing student achievement in a setting with similar challenges. Include how the district determines whether to retain or replace members of the leadership team.

The district determines and ensures each Focus and Priority school has a school leadership team of high quality, including principal and assistant principal with a record of increasing student achievement in a setting with similar challenges by debriefing with the principal and/or school leadership team where progress report updates are completed and next steps are discussed. This is followed by a follow up collaborative meeting between the district and leadership where prepared questions for the principal and/or leadership team are discussed.

The district ensures that the leadership has the ability to lead the turnaround effort. Under the definition of “turnaround principles” in the document titled ESEA flexibility, an LEA that has reviewed the performance of the current leadership in a focus or priority school and determined that it would like to retain that principal and his leadership team to lead the turnaround effort. The leadership review that is required to meet the turnaround leadership regarding providing strong leadership in a focus or priority school is fairly narrow and is conducted for the specific purpose of determining whether the leadership has the ability to lead the turnaround effort.

b. Instructional Staff

Describe the process by which the district determines whether to retain or replace members of the teaching staff in Focus and Priority schools whose data shows they have not contributed to improved student outcomes.

Determination of retaining or replacing members of teaching staff in Focus and Priority schools is made using the Danielson Model - A Framework for Teaching. This initiative was supported through Race to the Top funding. The primary purpose of the system is to improve the quality of instruction and school leadership by insuring accountability for performance; provide a basis for improvement and self-growth through productive teacher performance appraisal; implement a performance evaluation system that promotes collaboration among teachers, leaders and evaluators; and optimize student learning and academic growth.

D. Professional Capacity

1. Common Planning Time

Describe how the district ensures appropriate resources are allocated to ensure the master schedule at Focus and Priority schools allows for common planning time, as defined in Rule 6A-1.099811(2)(e), F.A.C.

The schools establish a common planning time within their master schedule to allow meetings to occur a minimum of two (2) times a week, by grade level. If the master schedule cannot allow all grade level or subject area teachers to participate at the same time, the district will establish weekly common planning time after school for a minimum of 45 minutes a week.

2. Instructional Coaches

Describe how the district provides Focus and Priority schools with a reading coach, mathematics coach and science coach to model effective lessons, lead lesson study, analyze data and provide professional development on Florida's standards. Include how the district monitors the daily activities of the coaches and their impact on instruction.

The district focuses organizational resources and (re) organized district staff to support turnaround by prioritizing turnaround efforts, intentionally articulating a framework for school improvement and aligning resources to support turnaround efforts within that framework. The district allocates additional human resources (instructional coaches) to support turnaround priorities.

Effective Writing in Secondary Classrooms - Middle School

Program Type Core, Supplemental

School Type Middle School

Core: SpringBoard is the College Board's college and career readiness program for all students, Grades 6-12, and is the adopted core program in Highlands County for Language Arts Grades 6-8. Through writing experiences in the SpringBoard texts as well as in writing workshops, students will be prepared to write in any tested genre and will gain the following:

- Reading-writing connections that result in transferable literacy skills
- Ability to produce writing in a variety of modes
- Experience in using research to inform writing and to support credible argument
- Skills in collaborating and communicating with other writers
- Language development in writing and speech, as well as embedded grammar instruction that focuses on structure and effect in writing

Description Writing is also incorporated across the curriculum through strategies which enhance teaching and learning in the content area classroom. AVID strategies for writing are utilized in content area classes as students learn to consider their audience and purpose for writing. Students engage in various writing processes to support their thinking by using text-based evidence. AVID strategies for writing include cornell notes, learning logs, process writing, quick writes and reflections, and peer evaluations.

Professional development is provided to teachers and coaches focusing on effective learning strategies for writing across the curriculum, and using writing to monitor students' learning. Strategies may include: reader response, journal writing, writer's workshop, mapping, text structure writing frames, and writing a summary.

Supplemental: Writing process and application objectives are aligned to the Language Arts Florida Writing Standards and are infused in weekly English/Language Arts lesson plans and curriculum maps. Additional supplemental resources include: Simple Solutions by Tamara Doehring, and Writing Across the Curriculum.

Effective Writing in Secondary Classrooms - High School

Program Type Core, Supplemental

School Type

Core: Collections is Houghton Mifflin Harcourt's program for all students, Grades 6-12, and is the adopted core program in Highlands County for Language Arts Grades 9-12. Through writing experiences in the Collections texts as well as in writing workshops, students will be prepared to write in any tested genre and will gain the following:

- Interactive writing lessons for students with models, feedback, and practice for careful analysis, argument with well-defended claims, and clear information
- Application of text analysis to writing, drawing upon additional sources, and citing evidence in the completion of Selection Performance Tasks
- Synthesizing ideas from multiple texts, conducting short research, and drawing conclusions with evidence in responses to Collection Performance Tasks
- Collaborating to improve writing using myWriteSmart for student and teacher feedback, peer discussions and editing groups, and accessing originality checks from Turnitin®

Comprehension Instruction Sequence modules include a sequence of instruction that supports deeper engagement with text. Content area teachers receive training on this sequence as a part of the Next Generation Content Area Reading - Professional Development. The modules guide students to think more deeply by: 1) providing opportunities for students to interact with text, and think/write critically about information in the text, 2) providing opportunities for students to deepen their comprehension of text through question generation, and 3) providing opportunities for students to write as a means of learning in order to expand, refine, and deepen their understanding of content area information and concepts.

Description

The Literacy Design Collaborative modules are another means by which writing is embedded at the high school level. LDC teaching "tasks" provide opportunities for students to demonstrate that they have learned college and career skills. The task articulates the texts students are assigned, how the students will grapple with the texts (for example, the selected template's cognitive demands), and what written product students will complete in response to the reading. Written products are organized around the main writing demands outlined in the CCSS: Argumentation, Informational/Explanatory, or Narrative.

Writing is also incorporated across the curriculum through strategies which enhance teaching and learning in the content area classroom. AVID strategies for writing are utilized in content area classes as students learn to consider their audience and purpose for writing. Students engage in various writing processes to support their thinking by using text-based evidence. AVID strategies for writing include cornell notes, learning logs, process writing, quick writes and reflections, and peer evaluations.

Professional development is provided to teachers and coaches focusing on effective learning strategies for writing across the curriculum, and using writing to monitor students' learning. Strategies may include: reader response, journal writing, writer's workshop, mapping, text structure writing frames, and writing a summary.

Opportunities for Writing to Learn - Elementary

Program Type	Core, Supplemental
School Type	Elementary School

"Effective writing skills are important in all stages of life from early education to future employment. In the business world, as well as in school, students must convey complex ideas and information in a clear, succinct manner. Inadequate writing skills, therefore, could inhibit achievement across the curriculum and in future careers, while proficient writing skills help students convey ideas, deliver instructions, analyze information, and motivate others." (National Center for Education Statistics, U.S. Department of Education, The Condition of Education 1998, p. 70)

Description Highlands County adopted Reading Street Common Core as its Comprehensive Core Reading Program. Writing to Sources is one component of the program that gives students opportunities to learn and demonstrate skills and knowledge 1) to substantiate claims and communicate in writing what they learned from text(s), 2) to collaborate with peers, adding quality experiences in the art of using text-based evidence, and 3) to practice with all modes of writing - argument, informative/explanatory, and narrative.

There are also many opportunities within the 90-minute reading block that allow students to make their thinking visible through writing, including the following:

- *quick writes/reflections
- *graphic organizers
- *question generation to clarify meaning
- *predictions
- *summarizing (e.g. main idea, author's point of view, character change, plot resolution, etc)
- *writing extensions (e.g. new ending)
- *interactive notebooks

2. Instructional Alignment and Pacing

a. Program Monitoring

Describe the process through which the district monitors whether core instructional and intervention programs are implemented as intended, how alignment with Florida's standards is maintained and whether they are effective. Include the data used to determine fidelity and effectiveness. Provide exemplars of how the district has responded to evidence of poor implementation and evidence that a given strategy is failing to reduce barriers to goals.

The district's Instructional Pacing Guides are aligned to the Florida Standards (FS) or Next Generation Sunshine State Standards (NGSSS) for reading, writing, mathematics, and science. These documents are available digitally and comprise an important component of the district's Improvement System. In addition the district implements a series of formative and baseline assessments throughout the year. The results are available to district, school and instructional staff to monitor student progress as evidence of standard implementation. Reports are generated indicating the strengths and weaknesses of classes, students and schools in reference to specific standards. In addition the district has developed an informal and formal observational tool for use by administrators and peer evaluators when observing teachers and learning in classrooms. Observations are recorded digitally and made available for immediate review by the teacher. This leads to very productive discussions about the implementation of core instructional and intervention programs.

Instructional

b. Supports for Student Transitions

Describe the structures the district has in place to support students in Focus and Priority schools as they transition from one school to another.

1. Will the district use its Student Progression Plan to satisfy this question?

B. Problem Analysis Summary

This section is not required by the Florida Department of Education, but is provided as an opportunity for the district to summarize the underlying root causes for the areas of need identified in the data, as determined by situational awareness of, and research conducted by, the stakeholders involved in the needs assessment.

District Improvement Goals

The following key is intended to help readers understand how the sections of this document correspond to the steps of the 8-step planning and problem-solving framework used in the School Improvement Plan. The Quick Key numbers can help registered users go directly to the point of entry for any given goal, barrier and strategy within the online survey.
