Response: The Title I Committee, which establishes a membership that includes the School Title I Facilitator, administration, parents, teachers, and staff, will be the main means EES will use to involve parents in the planning, review, revising, and improvement of the Title I programs in an organized, ongoing, and timely manner. A teacher representative from each grade level is requested for membership. Parents are selected for this committee through staff nominations and parent interest forms completed at Open House in September. This survey of parent's interests is also sent home with students for those who didn't attend Open House, and is collected by the Title I Facilitator. Eastside's school administrator will select representatives. The Eastside Title I Facilitator will contact and invite those parents to become year long members of the Title I Committee and/or the Family Engagement Team. The FET members meet three times while the Title I Committee meets a minimum of nine times a year (September through May) to review and evaluate topics associated with Title I components. The topics for the Title I Committee Meetings include, but are not limited to the following areas: Florida School Grading requirements, School Improvement, Ten Elements of a Title I School wide program, Family Engagement Team (FET), Annual Meeting, Highly Qualified Staff, Staff Development, Parent Workshops, Extended Day Learning Programs, Monitoring, Data Analysis, Surveys: (Parent Involvement and Staff) and Budget. Review of these programs with parents and educators using data from parent surveys will focus on the planning, and improvement for the next school year. Procedures for membership will be as follows: 1. Parent survey volunteering for committees; 2. Teacher nominating a parent from classroom; 3. Phone call to parent confirming nomination; 4. Membership of all Title I funded positions at EES; and 5. Each department will select a team member to represent their team. Additional meetings, above the regularly scheduled meetings, are held for final checklist approval and technical assistance provided by the District Title I office. Input from parents will be documented by sign-in sheets, agendas, and minutes to be maintained by the Title I Facilitator.

The 2015-2016 Title I Parent Needs Survey results (given to all EES parents in April 2016) will be used to address other support requested by parents. Additional information on ways parents can assist their children at home, check out materials, and opportunities for participating in parent involvement activities are available through the Title I Family Resource Center.
