

DIXIELAND ELEMENTARY SCHOOL Title I, Part A Parental Involvement Plan

I, Dawn Mulder, do hereby certify that all facts, figures, and representations made in this application are true, correct, and consistent with the statement of assurances for these waivers. Furthermore, all applicable statutes, regulations, and procedures; administrative and programmatic requirements; and procedures for fiscal control and maintenance of records will be implemented to ensure proper accountability for the expenditure of funds on this project. All records necessary to substantiate these requirements will be available for review by appropriate state and federal staff. I further certify that all expenditures will be obligated on or after the effective date and prior to the termination date of the project. Disbursements will be reported only as appropriate to this project, and will not be used for matching funds on this or any special project, where prohibited.

Assurances

- The school will be governed by the statutory definition of parental involvement, and will carry out programs, activities, and procedures in accordance with the definition outlined in Section 9101(32), ESEA;
- Involve the parents of children served in Title I, Part A in decisions about how Title I, Part A funds reserved for parental involvement are spent [Section 1118(b)(1) and (c)(3)];
- Jointly develop/revise with parents the school parental involvement policy and distribute it to parents of participating children and make available the parental involvement plan to the local community [Section 1118 (b)(1)];
- Involve parents, in an organized, ongoing, and timely way, in the planning, review, and improvement of programs under this part, including the planning, review, and improvement of the school parental involvement policy and the joint development of the schoolwide program plan under section 1114(b)(2) [Section 1118(c)(3)];
- Use the findings of the parental involvement policy review to design strategies for more effective parental involvement, and to revise, if necessary, the school's parental involvement policy [Section 1118(a)(E)];
- If the plan for Title I, Part A, developed under Section 1112, is not satisfactory to the parents of participating children, the school will submit parent comments with the plan when the school submits the plan to the local educational agency [Section 1118(b)(4)];
- Provide to each parent an individual student report about the performance of their child on the state assessment in at least mathematics, language arts, and reading [Section 1111(h)(6)(B)(i)];
- Provide each parent timely notice when their child has been assigned or has been taught for four (4) or more consecutive weeks by a teacher who is not highly qualified within the meaning of the term in 34 CFR Section 200.56 [Section 1111(h)(6)(B)(ii)]; and
- Provide each parent timely notice information regarding their right to request information on the professional qualifications of the student's classroom teachers and paraprofessionals [Section (h)(6)(A)].

Mission Statement

Parental Involvement Mission Statement (Optional)

Response: The purpose of the parental involvement program at Dixieland is to effectively communicate with parents providing information, resources, and/or materials that will help them help their child succeed academically. Building capacity activities are planned to provide parents the tools and resources necessary to help their child at home in order to raise student achievement.

Dixieland's Mission Statement: Our goal is to promote Lifelong Enthusiastic Achievement that is Relevant and rigorous in a Nurturing environment. (LEARN)

PCSB Mission Statement: To provide high quality education for all students.

District and School-based Title I Parent Involvement Programs in Polk County will strive to BUILD RELATIONSHIPS to create real family engagement for every child, every family, every teacher, every day.

Involvement of Parents

Describe how the school will involve parents in an organized, ongoing, and timely manner, in the planning, review, and improvement of Title I programs including involvement in the decisions regarding how funds for parental involvement will be used [Sections 1118(c)(3), 1114(b)(2), and 1118(a)(2)(B)].

Response: Parent input and participation in decisions regarding the improvement of Title I programs and funding for parent involvement activities have long been a part of Dixieland's culture. Requests for parent volunteers are made in the school newsletter, at School Advisory Council meetings, and during the annual school meeting held each fall. A special request was made during the February and March School Advisory Council meetings for parent volunteers to serve on the Parent Involvement and Compact revision committee. The committee meetings were held in April and May of 2016 to provide input into the planning, review, and improvement of Title I programs including the Parent Involvement Plan and Compact. The school's Needs Assessment Survey and Parent Surveys were reviewed. Based on this input, the Parent Involvement Plan was revised by the Parent Involvement Contact and presented to the School Advisory Council on May 13, 2016.

Each year, all recommendations regarding funding for parental involvement and the 1% expenditure of Title I funds are presented to the School Advisory Council for discussion and approval. A motion was made and approved at the May 2016 SAC meeting for a 1% expenditure of Title I funds to purchase agendas for each student attending Dixieland during the 2016-2017 school year.

Coordination and Integration

Describe how the school will coordinate and integrate parental involvement programs and activities that teach parents how to help their children at home, to the extent feasible and appropriate, including but not limited to, other federal programs such as: Head Start, Early Reading First, Even Start, Home Instruction Programs for Preschool Youngsters, the Parents as Teachers Program, public preschool, Title I, Part C, Title II, Title III, Title IV, and Title VI [Section 1118(e)(4)].

count	Program	Coordination
1	The Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA)	Supports all Exceptional Student Education (ESE) programs. Students are supported through three types of programs: resource, inclusion, and self-contained. Dixieland has 3 ESE teacher positions, 1.5 GATE teacher positions, 1 ESE Paraprofessional, and 51 students receiving services from the IDEA programs.
2	Title I, Part A	Provides after-school and summer instructional programs, materials, resource teachers, technology, professional development for the staff, and resources for parents.

3	Title I, Part C	Insures any migrant students enrolled in Dixieland are assisted by the school and those students and their families are recruited and identified by the District Migrant Education Program (MEP).
4	Title III	Funding from Title III provides supplemental resources for English Language Learners (ELL) and their families.
5	Title IV	Title IV provides violence and drug prevention programs in order to promote a safe school environment for our students. Dixieland works with students and parents regarding school bullying policies and has a pro-active PBS in place.
6	Title X	Title X funding provides support for identified homeless students through the Hearth Program which is carried out in cooperation with the Migrant Education Program for students and their families.
7	Kindergarten Readiness	A preschool orientation (Kindergarten Round-Up) is held in April and includes school information, learning activities, school readiness information, and a tour of Dixieland's facilities.

Annual Parent Meeting

Describe the specific steps the school will take to conduct an annual meeting designed to inform parents of participating children about the school's Title I program, the nature of the Title I program (schoolwide or targeted assistance), Adequately Yearly Progress, school choice, supplemental educational services, and the rights of parents. Include timeline, persons responsible, and evidence the school will use to demonstrate the effectiveness of the activity [Section 1118(c)(1)].

count	Activity/Tasks	Person Responsible	Timeline	Evidence of Effectiveness
1	Annual Meeting (invitation, notification, agenda, sign in sheets)	Title 1 staff	September 22, 2016 4:30 PM and September 29, 2016 4:30 PM	Evaluation surveys and parent evaluation
2	Power Point Presentation of Title I Requirements (discussion of compact, curriculum and state tests)	Principal	September 22 and 29, 2016	Evaluation surveys and parent evaluation
3	PTA and SAC Vote	Principal	September 22 and 29, 2016	Evaluation surveys and parent participation
4	Classroom Open House	Classroom Teachers	September 22, 2016 (3-5) and September 29, 2016 (K-2) following Title 1 Annual Meeting	Evaluation surveys and parent participation

Flexible Parent Meetings

Describe how the school will offer a flexible number of meetings, such as meetings in the morning or evening, and may provide with Title I funds, transportation, child care, or home visits, as such services related to parental involvement [Section 1118(c)(2)].

Response: Dixieland offers a flexible meeting schedule for the convenience of parents to participate in educational school activities. Kindergarten Round-up and Readiness for Kindergarten is offered in the morning. Our Annual Parent Meeting is offered in the evening on two separate dates. The School Advisory Council,(SAC) meets at noon. PTA meetings are in the evenings and special events are offered during the day and evening. Club de Lectura, an AR reading program for Hispanic students, meets weekly after school, while our Hispanic Family Nights are held in the evening. Our student led portfolio events are held after school hours from 4:30-6:00 PM. Parent Teacher

Conferencing is available for parents before and after school as well as school wide conferencing days available for specific grade levels from 3:00-6:00 on October 24-28th.

Building Capacity

Describe how the school will implement activities that will build the capacity for strong parental involvement, in order to ensure effective involvement of parents and to support a partnership among the school involved, parents, and the community to improve student academic achievement [Section 1118(e)]. Describe the actions the school will take to provide materials and training to help parents work with their child to improve their child's academic achievement [Section 1118(e)(2)]. Include information on how the school will provide other reasonable support for parental involvement activities under Section 1118 as parents may request [Section 1118(e)(14)].

Staff Training

Describe the professional development activities the school will provide to educate the teachers, pupil services personnel, principals, and other staff in how to reach out to, communicate with, and work with parents as equal partners, in the value and utility of contributions of parents, and in how to implement and coordinate parent programs, and build ties between parents and schools [Section 1118(e)(3)].

count	Content and Type of Activity	Person Responsible	Anticipated Impact on Student Achievement	Timeline	Evidence of Effectiveness
1	Parent Conference Training	Parent Involvement Contact	Research shows a positive impact on student achievement when teachers and parents work together.	Fall 2016	Increased effectiveness in communication with parents.
2	Data Day-progress monitoring and assessments	Administration	Data will be used throughout the year to make instructional decisions for increased student achievement.	September 19, 2016 and throughout school year.	Weekly monitoring of academic success.

Other Activities

Describe the other activities, such as parent resource centers, the school will conduct to encourage and support parents in more fully participating in the education of their children [Section 1118 (e)(4)].

Response: Dixieland provides a Parent Involvement contact to serve as a conduit between the district, school, staff, and parents encouraging continuous interaction and helping build strong relationships. Parents are urged to sign up for the Parent Portal which enables them to track their child's academic progress on a daily basis. In addition, parents are encouraged to take advantage of the district regional Parent Resource Centers and the Polk Parent University to increase parent involvement and empower parents to support the academic success of their children.

Communication

Describe how the school will provide parents of participating children the following [Section 1118(c)(4)]:

- Timely information about the Title I programs [Section 1118(c)(4)(A)];
- Description and explanation of the curriculum at the school, the forms of academic assessment used to measure student progress, and the proficiency levels students are expected to meet [Section 1118(c)(4)(B)];
- If requested by parents, opportunities for regular meetings to formulate suggestions and to participate, as appropriate, in decisions relating to the education of their children [Section 1118(c)(4)(C)]; and
- If the schoolwide program plan under Section 1114 (b)(2) is not satisfactory to the parents of participating children, the school will include submit the parents' comments with the plan that will be made available to the local education agency [Section 1118(c)(5)].

Response: Title I Programs: Dixieland provides parents with timely information about academic success, assessment requirements, grade level proficiency expectations, the School Parent Compact, the School Parent Involvement Plan and the Annual Meeting through the distribution of flyers, interim reports/progress reports, school website, school/classroom newsletters with calendars with important dates, an automated school messenger, student agendas, parent teacher conferences, parent portal, monthly SAC and monthly PTA meetings.

Parents are encouraged to participate in District Parent University and District Parent Involvement Resource Center through newsletters, flyers, PIN notebook, and website.

Assessments: On-going formative assessments are used throughout the school year to measure student progress in core, supplemental, and intensive instruction/intervention. Assessments used are: FAIR, Reading Wonders, Go Math, IBTP, Writing, Accelerated Reading, and weekly focus skill assessments for reading. Proficiency Levels: Students not reaching proficiency levels will be targeted for additional support and monitoring. Formative benchmark assessments are consistently used school-wide and in all core areas and used for progress monitoring as well as for planning and delivery of instruction. Teachers attend monthly MTSS sessions. This data drives instruction by providing direction for enrichment, target, and struggling students.

Meeting Opportunities: A series of meetings are held in the fall and spring for the purpose of bringing parents and school staff together to formulate and make decisions related to their child's education. The School Improvement Plan (SIP), and the Parent Involvement Plan (PIP), are reviewed and revised. In addition, the School Advisory Council (SAC), consisting of parents, members of the community, school administrators, and staff, meets monthly. Operating within the boundaries of School Board policy and State legislation, the SAC helps develop and review school goals and objectives, analyzes the school grade and current progress monitoring, votes on school expenditures and allocation of funds, and provides evaluations for school improvement progress. If the school wide program plan is not satisfactory to the parents of participating children, Dixieland will submit the parents' comments on the plan that will be available to the local education agency.

Accessibility

Describe how the school will provide full opportunities for participation in parental involvement activities for all parents (including parents with limited English proficiency, disabilities, and migratory children). Include how the school plans to share information related to school and parent programs, meetings, school reports, and other activities in an understandable and uniform format and to the extent practical, in a language parents can understand [Section 1118(e)(5) and 1118(f)].

Response: The staff at Dixieland works in conjunction with the district to provide opportunities for participation in parent involvement activities for all parents. Parents are invited and encouraged to serve on School Advisory Council, Parent Teacher Association, District Parent Advisory Council and other leadership teams. To the extent that it is practical, information and school reports will be in a uniform format and in a language parents can understand. In addition, every effort will be made to provide translators for parent/teacher conferences, distributed information, and other school activities. Dixieland strives to foster a sense of community within its school environment through the use of multiple forms of communication: phone, email, text, website, marquee, newsletters and flyers.
