

HOMESTEAD MIDDLE SCHOOL Title I, Part A Parental Involvement Plan

I, Keith Anderson , do hereby certify that all facts, figures, and representations made in this application are true, correct, and consistent with the statement of assurances for these waivers. Furthermore, all applicable statutes, regulations, and procedures; administrative and programmatic requirements; and procedures for fiscal control and maintenance of records will be implemented to ensure proper accountability for the expenditure of funds on this project. All records necessary to substantiate these requirements will be available for review by appropriate state and federal staff. I further certify that all expenditures will be obligated on or after the effective date and prior to the termination date of the project. Disbursements will be reported only as appropriate to this project, and will not be used for matching funds on this or any special project, where prohibited.

Assurances

- The school will be governed by the statutory definition of parental involvement, and will carry out programs, activities, and procedures in accordance with the definition outlined in Section 9101(32), ESEA;
- Involve the parents of children served in Title I, Part A in decisions about how Title I, Part A funds reserved for parental involvement are spent [Section 1118(b)(1) and (c)(3)];
- Jointly develop/revise with parents the school parental involvement policy and distribute it to parents of participating children and make available the parental involvement plan to the local community [Section 1118 (b)(1)];
- Involve parents, in an organized, ongoing, and timely way, in the planning, review, and improvement of programs under this part, including the planning, review, and improvement of the school parental involvement policy and the joint development of the schoolwide program plan under section 1114(b)(2) [Section 1118(c)(3)];
- Use the findings of the parental involvement policy review to design strategies for more effective parental involvement, and to revise, if necessary, the school's parental involvement policy [Section 1118(a)(E)];
- If the plan for Title I, Part A, developed under Section 1112, is not satisfactory to the parents of participating children, the school will submit parent comments with the plan when the school submits the plan to the local educational agency [Section 1118(b)(4)];
- Provide to each parent an individual student report about the performance of their child on the state assessment in at least mathematics, language arts, and reading [Section 1111(h)(6)(B)(i)];
- Provide each parent timely notice when their child has been assigned or has been taught for four (4) or more consecutive weeks by a teacher who is not highly qualified within the meaning of the term in 34 CFR Section 200.56 [Section 1111(h)(6)(B)(ii)]; and
- Provide each parent timely notice information regarding their right to request information on the professional qualifications of the student's classroom teachers and paraprofessionals [Section (h)(6)(A)].

Mission Statement

Parental Involvement Mission Statement (Optional)

Response: The mission of Homestead Middle School is to provide a rigorous and engaging curriculum in a safe, nurturing, collaborative environment, where a reflective, knowledgeable faculty welcomes students and addresses their diverse needs.

Our school community is committed to empowering our students with the intellectual, social, and emotional skills to succeed in a global, digital society as we challenge them to rise to their potential.

Involvement of Parents

Describe how the school will involve parents in an organized, ongoing, and timely manner, in the planning, review, and improvement of Title I programs including involvement in the decisions regarding how funds for parental involvement will be used [Sections 1118(c)(3), 1114(b)(2), and 1118(a)(2)(B)].

Response: Homestead Middle School creates a collaborative environment in which the parents and families of our students are invited and encouraged to be involved stakeholders in the school community. Communication between parents and the school is encouraged at all grade levels, including regular parent/teacher communication, and providing parents with meaningful scope of student work. Numerous efforts are made to communicate with parents in their primary language. The mode of communication is also adjusted when necessary to promote comprehension, acceptance, and trust. The school will organize and host ongoing parent friendly events and communicate with the parents through written, telephone, and electronic messages. The school provides a parent resource center as a place for parents to meet, post, review current bulletins and exchange information.

Coordination and Integration

Describe how the school will coordinate and integrate parental involvement programs and activities that teach parents how to help their children at home, to the extent feasible and appropriate, including but not limited to, other federal programs such as: Head Start, Early Reading First, Even Start, Home Instruction Programs for Preschool Youngsters, the Parents as Teachers Program, public preschool, Title I, Part C, Title II, Title III, Title IV, and Title VI [Section 1118(e)(4)].

count	Program	Coordination
1	Middle School Curriculum/How can you help your Child?	Homestead Middle School will host a parent night at the school for all 6-8th grade parents. The Instructional Coaches will present strategies for the parents to use at home with their children in the core curriculum areas of reading, mathematics, science and social science. This activity will take place in January 2017.
2	Curriculum Parent Night-FSA, FCAT and EOC	The Instructional Coaches will coordinate a parent night which will be beneficial to our parent community, "New Standards-Math and Language Arts". This night is scheduled to be delivered in English and Spanish during the month of February 2017.
3	Literacy Family Night	Homestead Middle School will host an interactive Literacy Family Night in order to have families participate in activities that promote literacy development. This night is scheduled in January 2017 during FL Literacy Week.
4	Thanksgiving Around the World	Homestead Middle School will host a Thanksgiving Night to feed the parents of our community and introduce different desserts from around the world. This activity establishes parent/school relationships and assists in closing the parent/school communication gap. This parent night will be hosted in November 2016. Free Turkeys and baskets will be donated to parents who attend.
5	IB Expo/Parent Night	Homestead Middle School will host an IB Expo, showcasing the work of the students in the International Baccalaureate Program. This activity will enable parents and the community to view the Magnet Program in action. This activity will take place in October 2016 March 2017.
6	Parent Informational Meetings	Homestead Middle School will host monthly parent informational meetings facilitated by school counselor. These meetings will begin in October 2016-April 2017.

Annual Parent Meeting

Describe the specific steps the school will take to conduct an annual meeting designed to inform parents of participating children about the school's Title I program, the nature of the Title I program (schoolwide or targeted assistance), Adequately Yearly Progress, school choice, supplemental educational services, and the rights of parents. Include timeline, persons responsible, and evidence the school will use to demonstrate the effectiveness of the activity [Section 1118(c)(1)].

Flexible Parent Meetings

Describe how the school will offer a flexible number of meetings, such as meetings in the morning or evening, and may provide with Title I funds, transportation, child care, or home visits, as such services related to parental involvement [Section 1118(c)(2)].

Response: Homestead Middle School offers flexible and creative methods to accommodate parent schedules. We have designated Mondays and Wednesdays as the official days for parent/teacher conferences. However, every reasonable accommodation is made if parents should request a different time and/or day. Parent activity and event nights are scheduled at different times to reach the largest amount of parents possible. Additionally, home visits are scheduled if deemed necessary.

Building Capacity

Describe how the school will implement activities that will build the capacity for strong parental involvement, in order to ensure effective involvement of parents and to support a partnership among the school involved, parents, and the community to improve student academic achievement [Section 1118(e)]. Describe the actions the school will take to provide materials and training to help parents work with their child to improve their child's academic achievement [Section 1118(e)(2)]. Include information on how the school will provide other reasonable support for parental involvement activities under Section 1118 as parents may request [Section 1118(e)(14)].

Other Activities

Describe the other activities, such as parent resource centers, the school will conduct to encourage and support parents in more fully participating in the education of their children [Section 1118 (e)(4)].

Response: Homestead Middle School provides assistance to parents as appropriate, in understanding such topics as the state's academic content standards and state student academic achievement standards, state and local academic assessments, the requirements of this part, and how to monitor a child's progress and work with educators to improve the achievement of their children. Additionally, parents may access information through the school web-site or on-site Parental Resource Center. The Parent Resource Center provides a space for parents to meet, post, and review current bulletins, as well as exchange information.

Communication

Describe how the school will provide parents of participating children the following [Section 1118(c)(4)]:

- Timely information about the Title I programs [Section 1118(c)(4)(A)];
- Description and explanation of the curriculum at the school, the forms of academic assessment used to measure student progress, and the proficiency levels students are expected to meet [Section 1118(c)(4)(B)];
- If requested by parents, opportunities for regular meetings to formulate suggestions and to participate, as appropriate, in decisions relating to the education of their children[Section 1118(c)(4)(C)]; and
- If the schoolwide program plan under Section 1114 (b)(2) is not satisfactory to the parents of participating children, the school will include submit the parents' comments with the plan that will be made available to the local education agency [Section 1118(c)(5)].

Response: Communication between parents and the school is encouraged at all grade levels. The mode of communication is also adjusted when necessary to promote comprehension, acceptance, and trust. Homestead Middle School distributes annually to parents, at the onset of the school year, the Title I Program Notification Letter, in a format, and to the extent practicable, in a language parents understand. The school administration, in collaboration with the teachers and parents, plans parent nights to inform and explain the curriculum, the forms of academic assessment used to measure student progress, and the proficiency levels expected. Parents are afforded the opportunity to formulate suggestions and to participate, as appropriate, in decisions relating to the education of their children through EESAC meetings.

Accessibility

Describe how the school will provide full opportunities for participation in parental involvement activities for all parents (including parents with limited English proficiency, disabilities, and migratory children). Include how the school plans to share information related to school and parent programs, meetings, school reports, and other activities in an understandable and uniform format and to the extent practical, in a language parents can understand [Section 1118(e)(5) and 1118(f)].

Response: Homestead Middle School makes reasonable efforts to create a welcoming environment within the school building that is clearly accessible to parents. Efforts are made to assist parent in understanding the needs and rights of their children, including children with varying exceptionalities. The school uses the assistance of the Parent Academy and the Migrant Education Program to broaden the scope of communication and narrow the communication gap due to language barriers.
