Mission Statement

Parental Involvement Mission Statement (Optional)

Response: At Warrington Elementary School, our mission of the Parent and Community Involvement Policy/Plan is to enable and to encourage all parents to participate as informed partners with school, faculty and staff in implementing the Title I School and home programs in an effort to improve student academic achievement and school performance.

Involvement of Parents

Describe how the school will involve parents in an organized, ongoing, and timely manner, in the planning, review, and improvement of Title I programs including involvement in the decisions regarding how funds for parental involvement will be used [Sections 1118(c)(3), 1114(b)(2), and 1118(a)(2)(B)].

Response: Warrington Elementary School has many strategies to include parents in the planning, reviewing and implementation of school programs and education of their children in our school. Weekly memos will be sent to parents and the community using School Messenger, Open House and Parent Conferences will occur at regular intervals, and students will encourage their parents to attend monthly parent functions.

Coordination and Integration

Describe how the school will coordinate and integrate parental involvement programs and activities that teach parents how to help their children at home, to the extent feasible and appropriate, including but not limited to, other federal programs such as: Head Start, Early Reading First, Even Start, Home Instruction Programs for Preschool Youngsters, the Parents as Teachers Program, public preschool, Title I, Part C, Title II, Title III, Title IV, and Title VI [Section 1118(e)(4)].

Other Activities

Describe the other activities, such as parent resource centers, the school will conduct to encourage and support parents in more fully participating in the education of their children [Section 1118 (e)(4)].

Response: Faculty and staff at Warrington Elementary School will use various activities to encourage and support parents participating more in the education of their children. One activity is having a Book Fair twice a year. We would always have one session of the Book Fair to be held at night to encourage parents to come and pick out a book with their child. We also have a volunteer program that allows parents and other family members to participate at the school on a daily basis. Our speech teachers also provide trainings and videos on proper communication with their children. If further information or assistance is needed then the parent can request to speak to our guidance counselor.

Communication

Describe how the school will provide parents of participating children the following [Section 1118(c)(4)]:

- Timely information about the Title I programs [Section 1118(c)(4)(A)];
- Description and explanation of the curriculum at the school, the forms of academic assessment used to measure student progress, and the proficiency levels students are expected to meet [Section 1118(c)(4)(B)];
- If requested by parents, opportunities for regular meetings to formulate suggestions and to participate, as appropriate, in decisions relating to the education of their children [Section 1118(c)(4)(C)]; and
- If the schoolwide program plan under Section 1114 (b)(2) is not satisfactory to the parents of participating children, the school will include submit the parents' comments with the plan that will be made available to the local education agency [Section 1118(c)(5)].

Response: Faculty and staff of Warrington Elementary School will use a variety of communication strategies to provide additional information to parents and to increase parental involvement in supporting classroom instruction.

• The school will send home newsletters to parents that are developed with participation of the principal, faculty and staff, and volunteers. It will include school news and parenting tips relating to school achievement such as homework tips, organizational skills, good study habits, good test taking skills and FSA study skills.

• Teachers will routinely contact parents by notes, letters, phone calls, home visits or email on an individual basis to communicate about their child's progress.

• The school will provide to parents an online website where parents can log online to get information on school activities.

• The school will send parents a parent-friendly letter that explains their child's test results and standardized test scores.

• The school will send letters home with students, post notices on the school website, and provide information about parent meetings along with our call out phone system (School Messenger).

Accessibility

Describe how the school will provide full opportunities for participation in parental involvement activities for all parents (including parents with limited English proficiency, disabilities, and migratory children). Include how the school plans to share information related to school and parent programs, meetings, school reports, and other activities in an understandable and uniform format and to the extent practical, in a language parents can understand [Section 1118(e)(5) and 1118(f)].

Response: Warrington Elementary School provides extensive programs for all ESE students and parents. Warrington Elementary School provides 10 full time ESE Teachers along with 1 Behavior Coach, 2 Behavior Technicians, 1 Guidance Counselor and 2

Speech Therapists to help with needs. All of the ESE classes also have at least one (some classes have two) teacher assistant in the class. Notes and flyers are given to parents to help them understand with their child's need. Teachers, the Behavior Coach, and Administration will meet and explain school programs and school reports as needed.
