Response:

Involvement of Parents

Describe how the school will involve parents in an organized, ongoing, and timely manner, in the planning, review, and improvement of Title I programs including involvement in the decisions regarding how funds for parental involvement will be used [Sections 1118(c)(3), 1114(b)(2), and 1118(a)(2)(B)].

Response: The District and Title I Administration provide training to all schools in the Title I Program on ways to include parents in development of both the M-DCPS Parent Involvement Plan (PIP), the school's PIP, the school improvement process and the life of the school. The Title I District Advisory Council (DAC) and Title I Parent Advisory Councils (PAC) have elected parent members from Title I schools in their memberships that demonstrate the involvement of parents. Also the Title I PAC's (one per region in the District) meet twice during the school year, by Region, to get input from parents in their schools to support the development of required parent plans. The scope and sequence of these specific requirements for involving the parents of Title I students, are also included on the agenda, including: involving parents in the planning and implementation of the Title I program at the school site; utilizing a minimum of one percent of the school's Title I allocation to support the parental requirements of Section 1118; conducting the annual Title I Orientation Meeting at the beginning of the school year to inform parents of the school's participation in Title I; providing the M-DCPS Consultation and Complaint Procedures directions; developing, distributing and reviewing the District and school's PIP; distributing "What Parents Should Know About Title I" brochure, "Next Generation Sunshine State Standards" and Florida Standards Assessment, School Grades, Ways to be Involved at School, and developing, distributing, and reviewing the School-Parent-Compacts. The Title I PAC's (one per Region in the District) meet twice during the school year, by region, to get input from parents in their schools to support the development of required District plans including the LEA, PIP, District Improvement process, Title I DAC Meetings, and Title I PAC Meetings.

Coordination and Integration

Describe how the school will coordinate and integrate parental involvement programs and activities that teach parents how to help their children at home, to the extent feasible and appropriate, including but not limited to, other federal programs such as: Head Start, Early Reading First, Even Start, Home Instruction Programs for Preschool Youngsters, the Parents as Teachers Program, public preschool, Title I, Part C, Title II, Title III, Title IV, and Title VI [Section 1118(e)(4)].
