Describe how the school will provide full opportunities for participation in parental involvement activities for all parents (including parents with limited English proficiency, disabilities, and migratory children). Include how the school plans to share information related to school and parent programs, meetings, school reports, and other activities in an understandable and uniform format and to the extent practical, in a language parents can understand [Section 1118(e)(5) and 1118(f)].

Response: Philip O'Brien Elementary will provide a Spanish Interpreter and a Hearing Impaired Interpreter as needed for parents meeting in groups or individual conferences. Written notices and/or documents are available in English, Spanish, and Haitian Creole. The ESOL para works closely with our ESOL parents to make sure they understand and are given information in their native language. Ramps have been installed in the doorways to ensure wheelchair accessibility.

Communication

☒ Changes made ☐ No changes made

Describe how the school will provide parents of participating children the following [Section 1118(c)(4)]:

- Timely information about the Title I programs [Section 1118(c)(4)(A)];
- Description and explanation of the curriculum at the school, the forms of academic assessment used to measure student progress, and the proficiency levels students are expected to meet [Section 1118(c)(4)(B)];
- If requested by parents, opportunities for regular meetings to formulate suggestions and to participate, as appropriate, in decisions relating to the education of their children [Section 1118(c)(4)(C)]; and
- If the schoolwide program plan under Section 1114 (b)(2) is not satisfactory to the parents of participating children, the school will include submit the parents' comments with the plan that will be made available to the local education agency [Section 1118(c)(5)].

Response: Parents will be notified of the Title I Annual meeting through the school newsletter, the marquee, agenda stickers, and teachers assembled in the front of the campus reminding parents of our meeting as they walk their children to school. The Title I Annual Meeting will be held Thursday, September 18, 2014, at 6:00. During this meeting the Title I Interventionist, Kathy McGahee, will discuss the Title I District/School Plan, and the School Compact. If a parent is unable to attend the meeting they may request a one-on-one meeting to go over the information discussed during the Annual meeting with Kathy McGahee. In addition, booklets from Channing Bete are available to parents for easy reading and explanations. Teachers at Philip O'Brien Elementary follow Florida Standards and the Polk County Learning Schedules for grades K-5. Teachers will go over grade specific curriculum during a parent night forum. Our teachers have been trained and use differentiated instruction, cooperative learning, gradual release model and analytical writing to meet the needs of their students. Parent evaluations will be used to monitor the effectiveness of these meetings.

Changes made No changes made

Describe how the school will involve parents in an organized, ongoing, and timely manner, in the planning, review, and improvement of Title I programs including involvement in the decisions regarding how funds for parental involvement will be used [Sections 1118(c)(3), 1114(b)(2), and 1118(a)(2)(B)].

Response: The Principal, Assistant Principal, Title I Facilitator, School Advisory Council, and selected parents will be responsible for the development, implementation and evaluation of the Parent Involvement Plan.

The Title I Interventionist will invite all parents to participate on the Parent Involvement Committee through an open invitation in the Title I Newsletter. Parents who respond to the invitation will be asked to be a part of the committee.

A secretary will be appointed to take notes and document the changes the parents would like to see for the next year.

At the first meeting, a copy of the previous plan will be given to members of the committee to use as a reference during an open discussion time. The Title I Interventionist will use guided questions to lead and prompt parents and members of the committee into an open discussion that will help plan, review, and improve the Title I program including involvement in the decisions regarding how funds for parental involvement will be used. Suggestions made by the parents/committee will be documented and revised for the next year. Parents/committee will meet again to review the final copy and add to or change any new ideas.

Title I will provide bi-monthly workshops for parents in order to give them the support needed to help their child/children in daily academic needs.

Coordination and Integration

Changes made No changes made

Describe how the school will coordinate and integrate parental involvement programs and activities that teach parents how to help their children at home, to the extent feasible and appropriate, including but not limited to, other federal programs such as: Head Start, Early Reading First, Even Start, Home Instruction Programs for Preschool Youngsters, the Parents as Teachers Program, public preschool, Title I, Part C, Title II, Title III, Title IV, and Title VI [Section 1118(e)(4)].

count	Program	Coordination
1	ESOL	This program is provided for K-5 students who need to develop English language proficiency in the areas of listening, speaking, reading and writing. During the development of English language proficiency, students progress through the beginning, intermediate and advanced levels. The ESOL para will provide translation services for parents as needed.
2	ESE	Exceptional Student Education supports our school by providing exceptional student education programs for students ages Kindergarten-5th grade who have a wide range of disabilities and students who are gifted. Teachers will conference with parents throughout the year to provide them with strategies that will help their children at home.
3	Title I	Title I provides supplemental resources and services such as added personnel for the students. In addition, parent workshops will be available through the Title I Parent Involvement program. At these workshops parents will receive information about standards, testing, student progress, School Improvement Plan, the compact, district & school Plan. In addition, we will provide parents with tools, strategies, and resources to work with their children at home in the academic areas of reading, writing, math, and science.

PHILIP OBRIEN ELEMENTARY SCHOOL Title I, Part A Parental Involvement Plan

I, Merri Crawford, do hereby certify that all facts, figures, and representations made in this application are true, correct, and consistent with the statement of assurances for these waivers. Furthermore, all applicable statutes, regulations, and procedures; administrative and programmatic requirements; and procedures for fiscal control and maintenance of records will be implemented to ensure proper accountability for the expenditure of funds on this project. All records necessary to substantiate these requirements will be available for review by appropriate state and federal staff. I further certify that all expenditures will be obligated on or after the effective date and prior to the termination date of the project. Disbursements will be reported only as appropriate to this project, and will not be used for matching funds on this or any special project, where prohibited.

Assurances

- The school will be governed by the statutory definition of parental involvement, and will carry out programs, activities, and procedures in accordance with the definition outlined in Section 9101(32), ESEA;
- Involve the parents of children served in Title I, Part A in decisions about how Title I, Part A funds reserved for parental involvement are spent [Section 1118(b)(1) and (c)(3)];
- Jointly develop/revise with parents the school parental involvement policy and distribute it to parents of participating children and make available the parental involvement plan to the local community [Section 1118 (b)(1)];
- Involve parents, in an organized, ongoing, and timely way, in the planning, review, and improvement of programs under this part, including the planning, review, and improvement of the school parental involvement policy and the joint development of the schoolwide program plan under section 1114(b)(2) [Section 1118(c)(3)];
- Use the findings of the parental involvement policy review to design strategies for more effective parental involvement, and to revise, if necessary, the school's parental involvement policy [Section 1118(a)(E)];
- If the plan for Title I, Part A, developed under Section 1112, is not satisfactory to the parents of participating children, the school will submit parent comments with the plan when the school submits the plan to the local educational agency [Section 1118(b)(4)];
- Provide to each parent an individual student report about the performance of their child on the state assessment in at least mathematics, language arts, and reading [Section 1111(h)(6)(B)(i)];
- Provide each parent timely notice when their child has been assigned or has been taught for four (4) or more consecutive weeks by a teacher who is not highly qualified within the meaning of the term in 34 CFR Section 200.56 [Section 1111(h)(6)(B)(ii)]; and
- Provide each parent timely notice information regarding their right to request information on the professional qualifications of the student's classroom teachers and paraprofessionals [Section (h)(6)(A)].
