

CROSSROAD ACADEMY Title I, Part A Parental Involvement Plan

I, Mr. Kevin Forehand , do hereby certify that all facts, figures, and representations made in this application are true, correct, and consistent with the statement of assurances for these waivers. Furthermore, all applicable statutes, regulations, and procedures; administrative and programmatic requirements; and procedures for fiscal control and maintenance of records will be implemented to ensure proper accountability for the expenditure of funds on this project. All records necessary to substantiate these requirements will be available for review by appropriate state and federal staff. I further certify that all expenditures will be obligated on or after the effective date and prior to the termination date of the project. Disbursements will be reported only as appropriate to this project, and will not be used for matching funds on this or any special project, where prohibited.

Assurances

- The school will be governed by the statutory definition of parental involvement, and will carry out programs, activities, and procedures in accordance with the definition outlined in Section 9101(32), ESEA;
- Involve the parents of children served in Title I, Part A in decisions about how Title I, Part A funds reserved for parental involvement are spent [Section 1118(b)(1) and (c)(3)];
- Jointly develop/revise with parents the school parental involvement policy and distribute it to parents of participating children and make available the parental involvement plan to the local community [Section 1118 (b)(1)];
- Involve parents, in an organized, ongoing, and timely way, in the planning, review, and improvement of programs under this part, including the planning, review, and improvement of the school parental involvement policy and the joint development of the schoolwide program plan under section 1114(b)(2) [Section 1118(c)(3)];
- Use the findings of the parental involvement policy review to design strategies for more effective parental involvement, and to revise, if necessary, the school's parental involvement policy [Section 1118(a)(E)];
- If the plan for Title I, Part A, developed under Section 1112, is not satisfactory to the parents of participating children, the school will submit parent comments with the plan when the school submits the plan to the local educational agency [Section 1118(b)(4)];
- Provide to each parent an individual student report about the performance of their child on the state assessment in at least mathematics, language arts, and reading [Section 1111(h)(6)(B)(i)];
- Provide each parent timely notice when their child has been assigned or has been taught for four (4) or more consecutive weeks by a teacher who is not highly qualified within the meaning of the term in 34 CFR Section 200.56 [Section 1111(h)(6)(B)(ii)]; and
- Provide each parent timely notice information regarding their right to request information on the professional qualifications of the student's classroom teachers and paraprofessionals [Section (h)(6)(A)].

Mission Statement

Parental Involvement Mission Statement (Optional)

Response: Crossroad Academy Charter School believes that positive parent/family involvement is essential to student achievement and thus encourages such involvement in the school's educational planning and operations. This policy seeks to strengthen the partnership among all our parents/guardians, staff, school, the community and the board of Directors by providing for parents' involvement in decision making as members of the school-based planning teams, local parent groups, and county-wide committees. Developing training programs that help the individual parent support their child at home will further strengthen this partnership.

Involvement of Parents

Describe how the school will involve parents in an organized, ongoing, and timely manner, in the planning, review, and improvement of Title I programs including involvement in the decisions regarding how funds for parental involvement will be used [Sections 1118(c)(3), 1114(b)(2), and 1118(a)(2)(B)].

Response: Crossroad Academy Charter School believes in involving parents in all aspects of its Title I programs. The SAC has the responsibility for developing, implementing, and evaluating the school level plans, including the SIP and PIP. More than 50 percent of the members of the SAC are parent (non-employee) representatives. In addition, all parents are given the opportunity to review the plan and offer their input prior to approval. For the PIP, all parents are given surveys at the end of the school year seeking their input on activities, training, and materials they needed to help their child. Results of parent surveys are reviewed by the SAC to determine needed changes. During the SAC meeting when the PIP and/or SIP are developed, the committee decides how the parental involvement funds will be used.

Coordination and Integration

Describe how the school will coordinate and integrate parental involvement programs and activities that teach parents how to help their children at home, to the extent feasible and appropriate, including but not limited to, other federal programs such as: Head Start, Early Reading First, Even Start, Home Instruction Programs for Preschool Youngsters, the Parents as Teachers Program, public preschool, Title I, Part C, Title II, Title III, Title IV, and Title VI [Section 1118(e)(4)].

count	Program	Coordination
1	VPK	The VPK staff will coordinate student transition meetings with parents and kindergarten teachers to address the student's specific learning needs.
2	Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA)	Supplemental instructional support provided by Title I will be discussed with parents during the development of the students' IEP.
3	Title I	In addition to the annual Title I meeting, the Title I Office will coordinate meetings with parents and teachers to discuss the specifics of Title I.
4	Title II	Professional development modules will be provided to schools to support the professional development needs of the staff related to parental involvement. The parent liaisons will be trained by the District's parental involvement staff on how to effectively use the modules.
5	ESOL	During monthly parent meetings, parents will get the opportunity to attend conference style sessions on topics that center around ESOL strategies for students so that parents can help their children at home.

Annual Parent Meeting

Describe the specific steps the school will take to conduct an annual meeting designed to inform parents of participating children about the school's Title I program, the nature of the Title I program (schoolwide or targeted assistance), Adequately Yearly Progress, school choice, supplemental educational services, and the rights of parents. Include timeline, persons responsible, and evidence the school will use to demonstrate the effectiveness of the activity [Section 1118(c)(1)].

Flexible Parent Meetings

Describe how the school will offer a flexible number of meetings, such as meetings in the morning or evening, and may provide with Title I funds, transportation, child care, or home visits, as such services related to parental involvement [Section 1118(c)(2)].

Response: Crossroad Academy Charter School PTO meetings are held in the evenings, but the schedule is determined in advance for the year and printed in the student's handbook. Parent conferences and/or IEP meetings are scheduled on a flexible basis to accomodate parent schedules. Meetings with parents will be held in the mornings, evenings or via teleconference as deemed necessary.

Building Capacity

Describe how the school will implement activities that will build the capacity for strong parental involvement, in order to ensure effective involvement of parents and to support a partnership among the school involved, parents, and the community to improve student academic achievement [Section 1118(e)]. Describe the actions the school will take to provide materials and training to help parents work with their child to improve their child's academic achievement [Section 1118(e)(2)]. Include information on how the school will provide other reasonable support for parental involvement activities under Section 1118 as parents may request [Section 1118(e)(14)].

3	Building ties between home & school	Principal/Staff	Increase parent involvement and student services	Ongoing	Parent participation, volunteerism

Other Activities

Describe the other activities, such as parent resource centers, the school will conduct to encourage and support parents in more fully participating in the education of their children [Section 1118 (e)(4)].

Response: Expand the resources available for parents. Provide technical assistance, trainings, as well as meetings to enhance parental involvement.

Communication

Describe how the school will provide parents of participating children the following [Section 1118(c)(4)]:

- Timely information about the Title I programs [Section 1118(c)(4)(A)];
- Description and explanation of the curriculum at the school, the forms of academic assessment used to measure student progress, and the proficiency levels students are expected to meet [Section 1118(c)(4)(B)];
- If requested by parents, opportunities for regular meetings to formulate suggestions and to participate, as appropriate, in decisions relating to the education of their children[Section 1118(c)(4)(C)]; and
- If the schoolwide program plan under Section 1114 (b)(2) is not satisfactory to the parents of participating children, the school will include submit the parents' comments with the plan that will be made available to the local education agency [Section 1118(c)(5)].

Response: Parents will receive notification of Title I programs through announcements on the school website, Skyalert parent notification system and written notices sent to their homes. Also, the link to Skyward, the district's student information system, is on the Crossroad Academy website and is used to communicate with parents on students progress, assignments, events and subjects. Copies of the Parental Involvement Plan are available upon parental request. Copies are located in the front office and distributed at the 9-week Parent Expos.

Additionally, during monthly parent meetings, parents attend conference-style sessions. These sessions topics include but are not limited to: overviews of the reading, math, science & social studies curriculum, school-wide achievement goals, and data, assessment & progress monitoring tools.

In the event that the school wide plan is not at a satisfactory level, then parents will be given the opportunity to submit their comments and those comments will be included with the plan.

Accessibility

Describe how the school will provide full opportunities for participation in parental involvement activities for all parents (including parents with limited English proficiency, disabilities, and migratory children). Include how the school plans to share information related to school and parent programs, meetings, school reports, and other activities in an understandable and uniform format and to the extent practical, in a language parents can understand [Section 1118(e)(5) and 1118(f)].

Response: A variety of parental involvement activities will be planned to ensure that each parent has ample opportunity to participate. Multiple sources will be used to communicate opportunities for involvement to parents. To provide full access and opportunities for all English limited proficiency, school reports, and informational letters from the school and/or district will be provided in the child's home language according to federal/state guidelines. In addition, steps will be taken to ensure disabled parents have access to school events and or information. Staff members and or district support personnel will be available to assist parents who have disabilities (visual, physical, deaf).
