Mission Statement

Parental Involvement Mission Statement

Response:

The faculty, staff, administrator, and students from Five Points Elementary School will provide the opportunities and educational environment that will allow each student to achieve a feeling of pride and become a winner everyday while mastering the Florida Standards.

Our Parent and Family Engagement Program makes every effort to embrace our families through ongoing and open communication, soliciting and encouraging participation from everyone affiliated with our school, guiding and teach our parents various activities and strategies for them to use with their children for further academic achievement and success, holding special events for our families at school and community locations throughout the year, and providing additional resources through our Parent Resource Room.

Involvement of Parents

Describe how the school will involve parents in an organized, ongoing, and timely manner, in the planning, review, and improvement of Title I programs including involvement in the decisions regarding how funds for Title I will be used (ESEA Section 1116).

Response:

Title I information is provided for the parent of Five Points Elementary students throughout the year. This traditionally begins on Meet the Teacher day, prior to the first day of school. We feel it is vital for parents to be continuously involved with the education of their children. Therefore, we offer an extended evening session for parents/families to attend Meet the Teacher day.

Information regarding parent involvement opportunities and activities are publicized and discussed at Meet the Teacher day, Open House, Title I Annual Meeting, Parent-Teacher Conferences, Volunteer Orientations, School Advisory Council (SAC) and Parent-Teacher Organization (PTO) meetings, Step-Up Nights, and other times throughout the year. Advance notice of these opportunities, meetings, and other events include, but are not limited to newsletters, marquees, Messenger call-out system, flyers, planners, and communication folders/binders.

Parents also receive pertinent ongoing information via classroom and school newsletters, our school marquees, automated calls from the school, and school and/or district websites.

Parents are an active part of our School Advisory Council and play a fundamental role in the decision making at Five Points Elementary.

Parents are provided opportunities to complete surveys involving: activities, trainings, and materials needed/requested to help their children.

The School Advisory Council assists with preparing, reviewing, and approving the Parent and Family Engagement Plan, the School Improvement Plan, and other duties as dictated by our Bylaws and the State of Florida.

Staff Development Trainings are provided to our faculty and staff in the development of the Parent and Family Engagement Plan and the School Improvement Plan.

The distribution of Parent and Family Engagement and School Improvement funds will be discussed at the School Advisory Council Meetings and the Title I Annual Meetings. Documentation will be recorded in the School Advisory Council Meeting agendas and minutes, surveys, and sign-in sheets.

The School Advisory Council reviews, discusses, and outlines the finding of parent surveys and activities at School Advisory Council Meetings.

All stakeholders are represented on the School Advisory Council and participation is encouraged at all meetings and activities.

Coordination and Integration with Other Federal Programs

Describe how the school will coordinate and integrate parent and family engagement programs and activities that teach parents how to help their children at home, to the extent feasible and appropriate, including but not limited to, other federal programs such as: Head Start, Early Reading First, Even Start, Home Instruction Programs for Preschool Youngsters, the Parents as Teachers Program, public preschool, Title I, Part C, Title II, Title III, Title IV, and Title V.

Response:

Kindergarten Round-Up is scheduled to inform parents of incoming Kindergarteners of the expectations, standards, grading procedures, and testing of Kindergarten.

Step-Up nights are planned for each grade level. Parents are invited to attend the night for their child's next grade level. For each grade level parents receive information regarding grade level expectations and standards, testing (local and state), grading procedures, along with grade level specific information.

The Parent Resource Room is open daily from 8:00am to 2:00pm. After school hours can be scheduled for parents unable to come in during the day. Resources are available for parent and teacher check-out to assist with academic improvement at home.

Parent Notifications

Describe how the school will provide each family with timely notification of their right to request information on the professional qualifications of the student's classroom teachers and paraprofessionals.

Response:

The "Parents Right to Know" notification letter is sent home at the beginning of the school year to inform parents of their rights.

The Title I Notebook is available in the front office for parents to review and request copies/information concerning the school.

Describe how the school will notify each family, in a timely manner, when their child has been assigned, or has been taught for four or more consecutive weeks, by a teacher who is out of field or does not meet the state licensure requirements.

Response:

An "Out of Field" notification letter is sent home with each student that is being taught for four or more weeks by a teacher that is out-of-field or does not meet the state requirements for licensure.

How will the school provide each family with an individualized annual report about the performance of their child(ren) on the State and Local assessment (ESEA Section 1116 - Florida State Statute 1008.22)

Response:

Local testing for progress monitoring includes iReady and Performance Matters.

iReady Diagnostic assessment is conducted three times per year in reading and math for Kindergarten through fifth grade. Results from these assessments are reviewed with parents at conferences and reports are sent home.

Performance Matters assessments for third through fifth grade Science are given three times per year. Results are given to parents as appropriate.

State testing includes FSA Reading and Math for grades three through five and Science for grade five. Results are distributed to parents as the school receives. Parents are notified through the automated callout system when results are available.

Flexible Parent Meetings

Describe how the school will offer a flexible number of meetings, such as meetings in the morning or evening, and will the school provide, with Title I funds, transportation, child care, or home visits, as such services related to parent and family engagement [ESEA Section 1116].

Response:

Meet the Teacher is scheduled for an extended time during the evening to better accommodate our parents.

We provide two Open House nights based on grade levels. The first will be scheduled in two sessions for first through fifth grade (first through second grades; third through fifth grades). The second will be scheduled for Kindergarten only.

Five Points holds multiple Title I Annual Meeting within the first quarter of the school year. Two meetings will be held prior to the two Open House Nights and one will be held during morning hours to accommodate parents.

Volunteer Orientation is held on multiple days with flexible times to accommodate adults wanting to volunteer in the classroom. In addition, a one-on-one orientation will be held for adults not able to attend scheduled days and times.

The Parent Resource Room is open daily from 8:00am to 2:00pm. After school hours can be scheduled for parents unable to come in during the day.

The Curriculum Resource Teacher will collect information to determine better dates and times for meetings, and if a light snack and/or child care services would make a difference in attendance.

The Curriculum Resource Teacher will collect data which will show the time of the meeting, day of the week it was held, number of people in attendance, type of workshop and/or event, and if snacks and/or incentives were included.

Teachers will offer parent conferences before, during, and after school hours to accommodate the schedules of parents, within reason.

The following steps will be taken to address barriers:

- Continue to offer Parent and Family Engagement activities at multiple times, when feasible.
- Offer Parent and Family Engagement activities at locations other than the school, when possible.
- Incorporate light snacks and/or incentives for those attending activities, when applicable.
- Workshop evaluations will be completed by those in attendance to assist with ways to increase and better serve parent and family engagement.

Building Capacity

How will the school implement activities that will build the capacity for meaningful parent/family involvement?

Response:

Annual Parent and Family Engagement surveys are distributed to all parents. Results are used to modify and/or add activities.

Step-Up Nights are held in the spring for parents to learn expectations and standards for their child's next grade level. Evaluations are completed at the conclusion of the night and results are used to determine the needs of parents for additional Curriculum Nights.

Family Reading Nights are held monthly. Flyers are sent home prior to each event advertising the date and time.

How will the school implement activities that will build relationships with the community to improve student achievement?

Response:

Throughout the year various guest speakers are invited to present to students.

Participation in the March of Dimes allowed students as well as their families to assist in a fundraiser that was used to support babies born premature. Students were educated on the history of March of Dimes and participated in a MOCK Walk.

Describe the parental involvement activity/strategy the school implemented during the previous school year that the school considers the most effective.

count	Content/Purpose	Description of the Activity
	Parent Conference Nights	Two conference nights (Fall and Spring) provided the opportunity for parents to learn grade level expectations along with strategies to assist their child with academic achievement and success.
	Step-Up Nights / Kindergarten Round-Up	These nights allowed parents to gain insight into the grade level expectations, standards, and state/local testing for their child's upcoming school year.
	Family Reading Nights	These nights increased student achievement by providing the opportunity for students and parents to spend time together reading. As a result students' reading ability and success increased.
