Evaluation

- ESEA Section 5224(3) requires the state educational agency to determine the degree to which progress is being made to meet the objectives and outcomes described in the application and how students are meeting challenging academic standards.
- LEAs should consider evaluation methods during the initial planning and development of programs and activities.

March Uploads

Evaluation: Implementation and Impact

ESEA Section 5224(3) requires the SEA to determine the degree to which progress is being made to meet objectives and outcomes described in the application and how students are meeting challenging academic standards. This includes if the program objectives and intended outcomes of LEA activities implemented under Section 5222(a)(1)-(5) were met.

1. The LEA will submit documentation to show its plan to evaluate or the evaluation results of ONE activity for EACH Area of Focus (if applicable).
