School Board Approval

This plan is pending approval by the Orange County School Board.

SIP Authority

Section 1001.42(18), Florida Statutes, requires district school boards to annually approve and require implementation of a Schoolwide Improvement Plan (SIP) for each school in the district that has a school grade of D or F. This plan is also a requirement for Targeted Support and Improvement (TS&I) and Comprehensive Support and Improvement (CS&I) schools pursuant to 1008.33 F.S. and the Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA).

To be designated as TS&I, a school must have one or more ESSA subgroup(s) with a Federal Index below 41%. This plan shall be approved by the district. There are three ways a school can be designated as CS&I:

1. have a school grade of D or F
2. have a graduation rate of 67% or lower
3. have an overall Federal Index below 41%.

For these schools, the SIP shall be approved by the district as well as the Bureau of School Improvement.

The Florida Department of Education (FDOE) SIP template meets all statutory and rule requirements for traditional public schools and incorporates all components required for schools receiving Title I funds. This template is required by State Board of Education Rule 6A-1.099811, Florida Administrative Code, for all non-charter schools with a current grade of D or F, or a graduation rate 67% or less. Districts may opt to require a SIP using a template of its choosing for schools that do not fit the aforementioned conditions. This document was prepared by school and district leadership using the FDOE's school improvement planning web application located at www.floridacims.org.

Purpose and Outline of the SIP

The SIP is intended to be the primary artifact used by every school with stakeholders to review data, set goals, create an action plan and monitor progress. The Florida Department of Education encourages schools to use the SIP as a “living document” by continually updating, refining and using the plan to guide their work throughout the year. This printed version represents the SIP as of the “Date Modified” listed in the footer.

Part III: Planning for Improvement

Data Analysis

Answer the following analysis questions using the progress monitoring data and state assessment data, if applicable.

What trends emerge across grade levels, subgroups and core content areas?

Math achievement, learning gains, and lowest 25% components improved in 2022. Science achievement also increased from 30% to 33%. ELA achievement decreased by 2%. All subgroups demonstrated improvement with the exception of students with disabilities. This subgroup decreased in comparison to the other subgroups.

What data components, based off progress monitoring and 2022 state assessments, demonstrate the greatest need for improvement?

The data components, based upon progress monitoring and the 2022 state assessments, that demonstrate the greatest need for improvement are ELA and science proficiency. These two components were the lowest areas of performance with 25% of students demonstrating proficiency in ELA and 33% students demonstrating proficiency in Science. This was a 2% decrease in ELA and 3% increase in science over the previous years' scores. Math showed a 9% increase in proficiency, a 36% increase in learning gains and 38% increase in our lowest 25% learning gains.

What were the contributing factors to this need for improvement? What new actions would need to be taken to address this need for improvement?

The contributing factors to this need for improvement were a lack of foundational knowledge and skills of prerequisite standards. The new actions that need to be taken to address this need for improvement are the resource team will support teachers with vertical articulation during common planning. Also, teachers will engage in the backward design of planning. Teachers will review assessments and item specifications prior to creating weekly lesson plans.

What data components, based off progress monitoring and 2022 state assessments, showed the most improvement?

The data components, based on the 2022 state assessments were the math learning gains which demonstrated an improvement from 31% to 67% and math learning gains of the lowest 25% increase from 20% to 58%. Additionally, third grade math proficiency increased on the 2022 state assessment from 31% to 56%.

What were the contributing factors to this improvement? What new actions did your school take in this area?

The contributing factors to this improvement were the new administration and resource team implemented an intense focus on standards-based planning, instruction, and assessments. The new actions the the school took was that the team’s focus shifted to monitoring for authentic student engagement and implementation of fluency strategies in all content areas with an emphasis on social and emotional learning.

What strategies will need to be implemented in order to accelerate learning?

In order to accelerate learning, there will be an emphasis placed on standards-based instruction, authentic student engagement, monitoring student learning outcomes, and literacy strategies during the school’s power hour (extra hour block) and after school tutoring. The focus will shift from remediation to acceleration. Also, Tier I interventionists will be utilized to support acceleration during core instruction. During the 2020 and 2021 school year, students missed substantial direct instruction minutes as well as social/emotional learning opportunities. In conjunction with an intense focus on standards-based instruction, monitoring for student learning, authentic student engagement, and literacy strategies, the team will emphasize the importance of social emotional learning to bolster student achievement.

Based on the contributing factors and strategies identified to accelerate learning, describe the professional development opportunities that will be provided at the school to support teachers and leaders.

Prior to the commencement of the school year, instructional staff will participate in training on instructional strategies for power hour and after-school tutoring. Teachers will receive strategies for engaging students, monitoring the students’ level of authentic engagement, and methods to re-engage students. Teachers will also have the opportunity to review instructional focus calendars with the resource team and analyze the new B.E.S.T. standards prior to planning daily lessons. Furthermore, members of the instructional and leadership team will have the opportunity to participate in Building the School Family with positive behavior support and responsible decision making. Throughout the school year, our leadership team will provide professional development opportunities, establish model classrooms, and conduct classroom walkthroughs to support teachers with the implementation of the positive behavior system. Relationship building will support the social-emotional component of acceleration. When student’s social-emotional needs are attended to, student achievement increases.

Provide a description of the additional services that will be implemented to ensure sustainability of improvement in the next year and beyond.

Professional Learning Communities, Professional Development opportunities, and strategic coaching support focused on data analysis and differentiating instruction will be utilized to support the areas of focus. The school will integrate these strategies in an effort to strengthen instructional practice, specifically with differentiating instruction, which will result in improved effectiveness, ultimately resulting in increased student achievement. Moreover, teachers will engage in professional development opportunities centered on safety, connection, and problem-solving. These elements will help teachers develop strategies that will support students with self-regulation and social-emotional learning.

Positive Culture & Environment

A positive school culture and environment reflects: a supportive and fulfilling environment, learning conditions that meet the needs of all students, people who are sure of their roles and relationships in student learning and a culture that values trust, respect and high expectations. Consulting with various stakeholder groups is critical in formulating a statement of vision, mission, values, goals, and employing school improvement strategies that impact the school culture and environment. Stakeholder groups more proximal to the school include teachers, students and families of students, volunteers and school board members. Broad stakeholder groups include early childhood providers, community colleges and universities, social services and business partners.

Describe how the school addresses building a positive school culture and environment.

Lake Weston provides yearly surveys to stakeholders, including staff, students, and parents. The surveys include opportunities for stakeholders to provide input, which is analyzed and considered as efforts are made to improve culture and environment. There will be a focus on creating an environment at Lake Weston Elementary where every student feels safe to try their best. The goal is to alleviate the pressure for staff and students by the results, but proud of the effort and process. Staff and students will take pride in themselves, their school, and their community.

Identify the stakeholders and their role in promoting a positive school culture and environment.

The administrative team will set the tone for promoting a positive culture and safe learning environment at the school. Teachers will create a welcoming learning environment for the class family in the classroom. Support Staff will promote positive choices across the campus. Families and the community will encourage students and staff with the continued positive support off-campus.
