SIP Authority and Template

Section 1001.42(18), Florida Statutes, requires district school boards to annually approve and require implementation of a school improvement plan (SIP) for each school in the district.

The Florida Department of Education (FDOE) SIP template meets all statutory and rule requirements for traditional public schools and incorporates all components required for schools receiving Title I funds. This template is required by State Board of Education Rule 6A-1.099811, Florida Administrative Code, for all non-charter schools with a current grade of D or F, or with a grade of F within the prior two years. For all other schools, the district may use a template of its choosing. All districts must submit annual assurances that their plans meet statutory requirements.

This document was prepared by school and district leadership using the Florida Department of Education's school improvement planning web application located at <https://www.floridaCIMS.org>.

Purpose and Outline of the SIP

The SIP is intended to be the primary artifact used by every school with stakeholders to review data, set goals, create an action plan and monitor progress. A corollary at the district level is the District Improvement and Assistance Plan (DIAP), designed to help district leadership make the necessary connections between school and district goals in order to align resources. The Florida Department of Education encourages schools to use the SIP as a “living document” by continually updating, refining and using the plan to guide their work throughout the year. This printed version represents the SIP as of the “Date Modified” listed in the footer.

Part I: Current School Status

Part I organizes the current status of the school around five domains inspired by the 5Essentials framework: Supportive Environment, Family and Community Involvement, Effective Leadership, Public and Collaborative Teaching, and Ambitious Instruction and Learning. Questions regarding the school’s Multi-Tiered System of Supports have been embedded throughout this part to demonstrate how data is used by stakeholders to understand the needs of all students and allocate appropriate resources in proportion to those needs.

Part II: Needs Assessment

Part II requires the school to review performance and early warning systems data in order to develop strategic goals and associated data targets (i.e., “SMART goals”) for the coming school year in context of the school’s greatest strengths and needs. An online tool was developed, which includes data visualizations and processing questions to support problem identification, problem analysis and strategic goal formulation.

Part III: 8-Step Planning and Problem Solving for Implementation

Part III enables the school to develop implementation plans for its highest-priority goals. With the overview of the current state of the school in mind and the strategic goals identified through the needs assessment, the planning team engages in a facilitated planning and problem-solving process, through which they

- Define strategic goals and establish targets to be reached by successfully achieving the goals (Step 1)
- Identify resources available to support the goals and barriers that could hinder achieving those goals (Step 2)
- Select high-priority barriers they want to address initially (Step 3)
- Design implementation and monitoring plans for strategies to resolve selected barriers (Steps 4-7)
- Determine how they will monitor progress toward each goal (Step 8)

Appendices

The following appendices, automatically-generated from content entered in Part III, are included in this document:

- Appendix 1 is a timeline of all action steps and monitoring activities
- Appendix 2 is an outline of all professional development opportunities and technical assistance items
- Appendix 3 is a report of the budget needed to implement the strategies

Differentiated Accountability

Florida’s Differentiated Accountability (DA) system is a statewide network of strategic support, differentiated by need according to performance data, and provided to schools and districts in order to improve leadership capacity, teacher efficacy and student outcomes. DA field teams collaborate with district and school leadership to design, implement and refine improvement plans, as well as provide instructional coaching, as needed.

DA Regions

Florida’s DA network is divided into five geographical regions, each served by a field team led by a regional executive director (RED).

DA Categories

Traditional public schools are classified at the start of each school year, based upon the most recently released school grades (A-F), into one of the following categories:

- Not in DA – currently A or B with no F in prior three years; charter schools; ungraded schools
- Monitoring Only – currently A or B with at least one F in the prior three years
- Prevent – currently C
- Focus – currently D
 - Planning – two consecutive grades of D (i.e., DD), or a grade of F immediately followed by a grade of D in the most recent grades release (i.e., FD)
 - Implementing – two consecutive grades of D in the most recent grades release preceded by a grade below C (i.e., FDD or DDD)
- Priority – currently F
 - Planning – declined to a grade of F in the most recent grades release and have not received a planning year or implemented a turnaround option during the previous school year
 - Implementing – two consecutive grades of F (i.e., FF), or three consecutive grades below C with an F in the most recent grades release (i.e., FDF or DDF)

DA Turnaround and Monitoring Statuses

Additionally, schools in DA are subject to one or more of the following Turnaround and Monitoring Statuses:

- Former F – currently A-D with at least one F in the prior three years; SIP is monitored by FDOE
- Planning – Focus Planning and Priority Planning; district is planning for possible turnaround
- Implementing – Focus Implementing and Priority Implementing; district is implementing the Turnaround Option Plan (TOP)

Duties

Describe the roles and responsibilities of the members, including how they serve as instructional leaders and practice shared decision making

Principal, Brett Beckett, is the instructional leader of the school and coordinates all academic activities and personnel including; Title 1, ESE, tutoring, scheduling, curriculum adoption and utilization, students services, and other special activities.

Title 1 Lead Teacher, Amanda Cordar, is responsible for intervention coordination and delivery Language Arts Teacher, Elize Cruz, acts as curriculum specialist for language arts and promotion of literacy throughout the school.

Educational technology specialist and STEM Coordinator, Eric Torres, has been charged with building the Science and Math programs and promoting a culture of technological interest at the school.

Educational Media specialist, Jeanne Minsavage, is responsible for coordinating computer use in classrooms, ensuring that students are making use of computers and technology on a daily basis and helping teachers coordinate technology and curriculum in the learning process.

Board Representative, Neil Drake, coordinates budgets regarding use of federal, state and local funding for services and programs. He is setting up a Title 11 program for teacher professional development aimed at familiarizing teachers with the nedw common and state core standards.

In our small school these instructional leaders meet daily on a formal and informal basis with each other and with all other school personnel to plan and coordinate instruction and intervention.

Describe the process through which school leadership identifies and aligns all available resources (e.g., personnel, instructional, curricular) in order to meet the needs of all students and maximize desired student outcomes. Include the methodology for coordinating and supplementing federal, state and local funds, services and programs. Provide the person(s) responsible, frequency of meetings, how an inventory of resources is maintained and any problem-solving activities used to determine how to apply resources for the highest impact

Before the school year begins, during pre-planning and when necessary throughout the school year, the leadership team in conjunction with all school personnel meet to schedule teachers and classes, Title I tutoring, Title II professional development, psychological services, currciular needs including materials and activites, before and after school programs, extended day and extended year activities, the school calendar, volunteer activities, technical and computer resources, programs and support, and all other school activities with an eye to maximizing resources towards maximizing high student performance on state standards. School leadership meets with all personnel to get input on needs and plans for each classroom and school program. The school leadership team uses this information to plan the school program and budget around the most important needs or deficits existing at the school. In this particular year the orientation has been to support the teaching of math as this was the school's lowest performing area in the past year.

The persons responsible for this planning are the principal, the board representative, the technology specialist, media specialist and the Title I lead teacher.

Data teams meet weekly to review incoming data from classroom teachers and coordinate focused tutoring. This data analysis drives our tutoring model. Instruction will be designed around individual student deficiencies on standards. Intervention specialists work with teachers to build small group instruction. Classroom teachers maintain and supply curriculum materials to tutors for students' individual intervention folders.

Evaluation of last year's school improvement plan

The Board of Directors of the One Room School House, a Florida charter school, serving as the school's SAC, has a representative that works closely with the school's principal and leadership team in developing all school activities. The board reviews and approves all required school documents including the school improvement plan.

Development of this school improvement plan

The board of directors, through its representative, works closely with the school administration, parents, and other stakeholders to monitor school progress, suggest improvements in areas that require attention, and closely follow the indicators detailed on the SIP. The board approves and continuously monitors and amends the school's budget with an eye to areas of critical need as suggested in the SIP.

Preparation of the school's annual budget and plan

The annual budget and spending plan is prepared within the framework of consultations between the principal, the representative of the board of directors, and key personnel overseeing school programs such as Title I, Title II, ESE, After School, VPK, curriculum, facility maintenance, business management, tutoring programs, etc. The board of directors approves a planning budget in the spring for the following school year and amends this budget as required by program and revenue changes.

| Name | Title |
|-------------------|---------------------|
| Beckett, Brett | Principal |
| Cordar, Amanda | Teacher, K-12 |
| Cruz, Elize | Teacher, K-12 |
| Minsavage, Jeanne | Instructional Media |

Duties

Describe how the LLT promotes literacy within the school

The LLT promotes literacy throughout the school by teaming with classroom teachers, administrators, tutors and extended day personnel to promote the following programs and activities.

Accelerated Reader: Every student from 2nd grade up must read a leveled book each week and prove it by passing the AR test. Students choose their own books based on individual interests and preferences. This program is incentivised and offers many opportunities outside of the regular school day for completion.

Tutoring: Students who are below level readers have many opportunities to receive help in attaining literacy goals during school from Title 1 tutors, after school from Title 1 tutors and other tutors funded by grants and after school revenues, on Saturdays during Saturday School, and especially during our 5 tutoring weeks when school is out.

VPK: Our VPK program promotes early literacy skills for future students using developmentally appropriate methods and curriculum.

Student Library: We have a massive student library with thousands of titles that have been chosen for and by our students so that every conceivable interest and content area is covered for the Accelerated Reader program and other class projects.

Student Newspaper: Interested students are encouraged to write for our school newspaper.

Computer Literacy: Early on our students are introduced to computer skills on a daily basis developing through use of one of our mobile computer labs. Computer literacy is gaining in importance at the school because of the new emphasis on computer based testing and the need for all students to express themselves using technology.

Core Standards Training: Teachers are learning emerging methodologies and content areas in literacy through core standard training.

Authors and Artists: Language Arts teachers are encouraging students to write and publish books and other materials through our Authors and Artists program.

Public and Collaborative Teaching

The school's response to this section may be used to satisfy the requirements of 20 U.S.C. § 6314(b)(1)(D).

Describe the school's strategies to encourage positive working relationships between teachers, including collaborative planning and instruction

Teachers, other teaching staff, and principal meet regularly to discuss the changing curriculum, strategies to teach across curricula, and special events and programs that encourage literacy and participation. Art and social studies teachers are required to have a large writing component in their classes to promote literacy. They work closely with the Language Arts teacher to understand and promote the new standards for successful composition. Title I tutors work with classroom teachers on a daily basis to determine the best strategies curriculum content and incentives for individual students. The physical education team is tasked with promoting computer literacy skills on the many days when inclement weather moves classes indoors. Teachers meet and plan across grade levels to implement new standards and share strategies for student success. Math teachers meet to discuss changing standards and develop ways to cross teach curriculum with science teachers. The principal, as curriculum leader, meets daily with teachers and grade level and curriculum groups to plan strategies and review data. The tutoring team at the school consults regularly with the Title I lead teacher to review student progress and tutoring assignments. This team also meets daily with classroom teachers to evaluate changing student needs.

Describe the school's strategies to recruit, develop and retain highly qualified, certified-in-field, effective teachers to the school

Salary and benefits are on par with school district. Personal teaching style is protected. A collegial atmosphere is maintained through encouragement by the leadership team and a positive management style. Teacher input into school function and atmosphere is highly sought and regarded. The school recruits interns and tutors in the early stages of their careers and helps them through the growth process of teaching, often providing resources for certification, recertification and adding certifications. the school only hires highly qualified, certified in-field teachers.

Describe the school's teacher mentoring program, including the rationale for pairings and planned mentoring activities

Most of our new classroom teacher hires begin as Title I teachers and spend much time in consultation with experienced classroom teachers before they become classroom teachers themselves. This gives new teachers a keen insight into the curriculum and strategies of experienced classroom teachers. All teachers, new and experienced work with grade level or subject area teams that share insights on curriculum and students.

Ambitious Instruction and Learning

Instructional Programs and Strategies

Instructional Programs

Describe how the school ensures its core instructional programs and materials are aligned to Florida's standards

Adopt State approved curriculum: All new curriculum acquisitions are selected from DOE approved vendors.

Make use of pacing calendars: Teachers create and utilize pacing calendars to guide and ensure the complete provision of all state standards in the instructional program.

Professional Development: The school provides numerous professional development opportunities through Title II and other resources so that teachers are able to stay current on the most current programs and materials that are aligned to Florida's standards.

Instructional Strategies

Describe how the school uses data to provide and differentiate instruction to meet the diverse needs of students. Provide examples of how instruction is modified or supplemented to assist students having difficulty attaining the proficient or advanced level on state assessments

Teachers, support staff, and administrators meet regularly to analyze student progress on standards. Results from statewide testing are used to determine the level of intervention for upper grade students. Fair testing is analyzed to determine the need for intervention in the lower grades. Weekly testing provides data to teachers and tutors as to the specific standards in which each student is proficient or requires supplemental instruction to master. Data is shared continuously between classroom teachers and tutors on each student's progress towards mastery of standards. If a student fails to meet a standard on a curriculum test, that information is passed on in a file to the team that works with the student during the Title I pull out program, the Title I extended day program and the Title I extended year program. Additionally, if the student is in the ESE program, that information is passed on to the interventional specialist involved with the student. Tutors and intervention specialists use differentiated instruction materials included in the state approved scientifically researched curriculum series utilized at the school.

Provide the following information for each strategy the school uses to increase the amount and quality of learning time and help enrich and accelerate the curriculum:

Strategy: Extended School Year

Minutes added to school year: 7,500

Tutoring weeks are spread out during the school year. Students who are deficient on standards have the opportunity to come to school for an extra twenty hours of tutoring guided practice on specific standards they have yet to master. This occurs five times per year. All tutors are highly qualified and certified teachers who are familiar with the students they tutor.

Strategy Rationale

Increased opportunities for mastering state standards should occur regularly and often.

The school's response to this question may be used to satisfy the requirements of 20 U.S.C. § 6314(b)(1)(G).

Describe the strategies the school employs to support incoming and outgoing cohorts of students in transition from one school level to another

The school provides Voluntary Pre-Kindergarten as well as a kindergarten orientation to help young students in the community familiarize themselves with One Room. The school has an "Early Graduation" program wherein students "graduate" to the next grade level after state testing for the last month of school. This helps students become familiar with the following year's curriculum and serves to re-energize students and teachers at the end of a long year.

College and Career Readiness

Describe the strategies the school uses to advance college and career awareness, which may include establishing partnerships with business, industry or community organizations

STEM program brings in speakers and demonstrations of engineering and science activities that promote awareness of technology careers.

NA

Describe efforts the school has taken to integrate career and technical education with academic courses (e.g., industrial biotechnology) to support student achievement

STEM program brings in speakers and demonstrations of engineering and science activities that promote awareness of technology careers.

Describe strategies for improving student readiness for the public postsecondary level based on annual analysis of the High School Feedback Report, as required by section 1008.37(4), Florida Statutes

The High School Feedback Report indicates that nearly half of Alachua County's graduates do not attaing level 3 in reading. Our school will concentrate on promoting literacy to its 75% free and reduced lunch population. This insures that we are contributing to student readiness in all areas.
